The X Factor! : Resting in the Lord

Using the Spiritual Weapon of Resting in the Lord Professionally in Our Witnessing and Winning!

By Maria ML 3784 8/08

"The weapons of our warfare are not carnal, but mighty through God to the pulling down of strong holds" (2 Corinthians 10:4).

What?

1. The weapon of resting in the Lord is working in the spirit, putting your weight down on Jesus, and spending time in deep communion and fellowship with Him so that He can reveal to you His secrets, infuse you with strength, renew your vision, and love you long and tenderly. It's carrying a spirit of peace and faith, putting Jesus first, learning to see in the spirit, surrendering your will to Jesus, and is linked very closely to full possession.

Why?

2. One of the most pleasant spiritual weapons at our disposal is the spiritual gift of resting in the Lord. It's also going to be one of our lifesavers, or sanity savers, in the very busy years ahead as we move forward into the Enemy's territory and win more souls, members and disciples.

3. Resting in the Lord is pleasant because it involves thinking about Jesus, spending time with Him, and reveling in the wonders of the spirit world. In that sense, it's not hard or taxing, although it does take faith to slow down and stop everything in order to do it. It takes faith to work in the spirit. But as we do, the Lord has promised that we will reap the wonderful fruits of obedience, as well as faith to take more time away from the wings.

4. We must take time to rest in the Lord, folks, because we desperately need more and more of Jesus in order to become the effective witnesses and winners that we need to be. If you try to plow through your outreach and witnessing and teaching in your own strength, you won't last long. Being a professional missionary is taxing, and there is always way more to do than you can possibly get done. The only way to survive, the only way to stay useful to the Lord and avoid stressing out and burning out, is to learn to rest in the Lord. Learn to work in the spirit. Learn how to effectively cast your burdens on Jesus and let Him carry the load.

5. Our work for the Lord during the Offensive must be a work of His Spirit--Him working through us. It can't be an arm-of-the-flesh approach. It has to be each of us leaning hard on Him, resting in Him, and looking to Him. One very simple and practical way to exercise our spiritual weapon of resting in the Lord is taking time for meditation. So we're going to focus primarily on the meditation aspect of resting in the Lord here.

6. If you haven't already learned how to rest in the Lord and take time for meditation, now is the time to start. Now is the time to reread and study the "Resting in the Lord" GN series and make it happen in your life. Reread the "Meditation Testimonies." Learn to meditate. Learn how to rest in the spirit and you will reap the wonderful spiritual and physical benefits of casting all of your cares on our Husband. If you haven't felt the need for this fully up until now, you will in the months and years ahead as the Lord begins to send us many more sheep and friends to minister to. We'll need the spiritual strength that is gained from resting in the Lord in order to be able to take care of them properly.

7. Our lives are busy, and they're not going to get any less busy--so we will have to have the calm and peace and strength that come from resting in the Lord and taking time for meditation. The more at peace we are, the more faith we will manifest to our sheep, and the more they will want what we have. So many people in the world long for peace. Being full of faith and calm and trust is a part of our witness, and it's part of what will win many to Jesus and to the Family.

8. (Jesus:) I will arrange "crisis moments," so that your quietude, your reliance on Me, your powers of meditation and resting in Me will turn heads. When everything is falling apart around you and you keep your cool, this will draw others to you. It will spark interest; it will cause people to want what you have. Even in the petty daily cares of life--a long checkout line at your local supermarket or bank, driving in the middle of the city with traffic, interacting with clerks, counter girls, etc.--the peace that you exude will turn heads. I will cause even those simple, everyday-business type of times to lead to a witness if you are filled with Me, resting in Me, and reflecting My Spirit.

9. Aside from the physical and spiritual benefits that we personally will reap, and the renewed anointing that we will receive for witnessing and winning, it will also open the door for the Lord to do more miracles for us. The more we learn to operate in the spirit, the more we will be in line for the miracles of the spirit. We will be able to do the difficult, because we will be letting His Spirit do it through us. We will know how to care for our sheep because we'll have spent quiet time alone with Jesus, meditating on Him, connecting to His mind, and He will be able to minister to our spirit and speak to us.

10. Another benefit of resting in the Lord and meditation is that you give the Lord an opportunity to prepare your heart for those that you will meet that day. He might even give you a feeling, or a picture, or a word that might turn out to be key. You'll also be attuned more acutely to the Lord's checks throughout the day, as a result of time spent resting in Him and meditating, and will be more sensitive to out-of-the-ordinary or unexpected witnessing opportunities or open doors.

11. When we're resting in the Lord, our spirits and minds will be filled with the Lord's Spirit and mind, and we'll be able to pass this on to our sheep. Even if it's not always something physical or tangible that we give to our sheep, they will sense the Lord's Spirit in us more often. As we slow our spirits down in order to spend time resting in the Lord, meditating on Him, and getting into the spirit, He will show us what our priorities are, and we'll have the faith to act on them.

12. Resting in the Lord and meditating will bring a whole lot more peace and calm to your spirit. It will give you more strength--"they that partake of these things have strength that ye know not of" (ML #191:13)--and more joy in your labors and in your witnessing and winning. It will be obvious, a testimony to those whom you come in contact with. That peace and calm will also give you more joy in your labors and in your witnessing and winning.

13. One witnesser shared: "The Lord has been teaching me to enjoy meeting the sheep, and not to worry whether I'm doing everything perfectly, or if I got my spiel just right. We need to have the spirit of joy, as that is what is attractive. Sometimes too much emphasis on doing everything just right can intimidate young people like me and make us feel that we have to be so perfect. Yes, we need to do our prep beforehand, but I have learned when we're in the office to just enjoy the person and speak from the heart."

14. That point about enjoying your time with the sheep is so true. It's important to enjoy our work for the Lord. Really, when you think about it, what could be more inspiring and joyous than taking part in winning the world? So we should be happy as we witness, and our sheep should feel that from us--that we're happy to be with them, that we enjoy pouring into them. Resting in the Lord helps us to have more of that joy of the Lord and joy in our labors.

15. (Jesus:) Your attitude toward making meditation a part of your daily life is a big key. Think, "I need this; it's like spiritual medicine that's going to make me feel better and act better and do a better job for Jesus." And then take steps to make it happen.

16. (Jesus:) During My short ministry on Earth, what was the key to My success? How did I--limited as I was within My physical human body that was just like yours--find the superhuman capacity to perform miracles, preach to multitudes, heal the sick, and change hearts and lives?

17. The secret is simple, and it is something that is important for you to grasp during the Offensive. The miracles, the witness, the greater flocks, and financial stability that I have promised and that are yours, will be in great part the result of your quietness and your confidence in Me.

18. Before I could face the multitudes to do the miracle of the loaves and the fishes, I stopped and waited on My Father. How else could I connect with the Power Source? Before I preached the Sermon on the Mount, I quieted My heart and focused My sight on My Father, and He filled Me with words that have marched down through the ages--bringing strength, comfort, and hope to many people.

19. Now, look at where you stand. The need for miracles has not passed; the need of hearts dying from spiritual diseases is present and greater than ever. And My need for you to be a manifestation of My presence to each person that you meet, in each situation that arises, in the face of each impossibility, will only grow. What will you do? How will you cope? How will you be able to channel Me so fully that people will recognize Me in you just by a look, a touch, or a word? The answer lies in using the weapon of resting in Me, which includes meditation and reflection.

20. As you meditate and reflect on My face, you will become a reflection of Me. You will become a mirror of Me as you turn your face up to the light. When the needs press hard upon you, reflect Me on to whatever situation arises. When obstacles arise, reflect My answers. When hearts are awaiting My truth, reflect Me. In this lies the unbeatable strength and power of resting in Me. As you rest in Me, you reflect My Spirit, and My Spirit is the ultimate in overcoming all things, in answering all problems, in touching all hearts, and performing all miracles.

21. This is a secret weapon that I used during My days on Earth, and this will be a key to your personal success in the Offensive. Use the weapon of resting in Me.

22. (Jesus:) When you take the time to meditate and give Me time to work in your heart and spirit, I am able to reveal to you things that you wouldn't have known otherwise. These will be as jewels of inestimable worth--they will be revelations of the future, insight into the lives of those to whom you are ministering, and so much more. As you stop to meditate, you connect with the all-seeing Eye in the sky that can reveal to you in an "unearthly" tongue what you need to know to be a success, and to move on to the next level in the Great Commission.

How?

23. * Open your key promise book and meditate on a promise from the witnessing section. Think about the ways in which the Lord can fulfill that promise for you.

24. * Use those first few minutes in the morning when you wake up to dwell on the things of the spirit. For example, think about a Bible character or spirit helper who can help you that day in your witnessing.

25. * Schedule 5 to 15 minutes for meditation in the evening, if you plan to go out witnessing the next day. Let the Lord fill you and prepare you for the next day, in whatever way He knows is best.

26. * Take some meditation time as you travel to your witnessing destination (such as while on the bus or in the back of the car). Let your witnessing partner know what you're doing, and just close your eyes and think about Jesus. This is especially important if things were very busy before leaving the house and you didn't have time to stop and get ahold of the Lord beforehand.

27. (Jesus:) Meditating on Me doesn't necessarily require a quiet room, hidden away somewhere. Being in a quiet place and having a solid block of time set aside for meditation is ideal, when possible, especially when your goal is to slip away for a time of deeper meditation. But even when you don't have such a solid chunk of time, or the most ideal conditions, you can still meditate on Me and connect with Me in the spirit.

28. You can take little meditation segments as you ride the subway or stop at a café for a break. Forming the habit of pausing in your thoughts, even for a few moments, to meditate on Me while out and about, keeps Me in first place. It strengthens your channel and shapes your thought patterns. Then, when you are witnessing to someone, the words will flow in just the right way to touch the listener's heart.

29. * One fruitful witnessing Home made it a policy for all outreachers to take 30 minutes of meditation, prayer, praise, and Word time each day in the middle of their outreach, while they were out.

30. * Take a "spiritual nap" in the middle of your outreach day. Go somewhere quiet, "lay" your head on the Lord's shoulder, and rest in Him. Think about Him.

31. * If you feel discouraged because things aren't happening the way you want them to, and you're having a slow witnessing day, channel your thoughts to the spirit. Think about a miracle that you want to see happen, and then place it in the Lord's hands.

32. * Before you head out the door, or during a break in your outreach, take a few minutes of quiet to connect with Jesus. Imagine the Lord working through you, speaking through you, and witnessing through you. Rest in His ability to use you.

33. (Jesus:) Resting in Me is like a charge-up for your spirit. It gives you the strength to step out the door day after day, and see each day and each opportunity with a fresh, Word-filled perspective of, "Everyone needs Jesus!"

34. * When your body is tired during a long day of outreach and you feel like you can't go on, stop for a little break and meditate on the Lord's power infusing you with the physical strength that you need. Think about one of His promises of strength and power, and let Him give you the strength that you need to carry on.

35. * Get into the habit of stopping and focusing on the Lord's wisdom and the power of His words before your witnessing appointments--His words that had the power to touch the heart of both the woman at the well and the learned Nicodemus. His words hold the spiritual food that those in the world need. Stop and meditate on the power and timelessness of the Lord's words, their ability to ease the heart of man and answer any question, and you will receive that same power to pass on His words to others.

36. (Jesus:) Resting in Me gives you the steady hand of faith and keen eye of vision so that you can spot the target when it comes into view, avoid the Enemy's distractions, and hit the mark every time.

37. * Commit your sheep and their needs to the Lord in prayer. Any time you feel burdened for one of them, pray for them, and know that the Lord is going to do what you cannot.

38. * Before members of your flock come over to your house for a class, take a few minutes of meditation to get in the spirit. Claim the key of full possession, and meditate on the fact that through this key the Lord is in you, He will speak through you and help you to reach those you will be teaching in the way that He knows they need it.

39. * When you feel pressured or burdened about something, before jumping in to take care of it, force yourself to stop and commit it to the Lord in prayer and give Him a chance to punch through with the solution or answer that you need.

40. * Part of resting in the Lord is putting first things first and then trusting the Lord to take care of the rest. Putting the things we can't do in the Lord's hands is part of using the weapon of resting in the Lord.

41. (Jesus:) Have you ever tried to push a stalled car? It's pretty hard work. Have you ever tried to push it uphill? That's incredibly difficult. That's what witnessing can be like--pushing a heavy car uphill. But I am the One Who can turn on the power and get that car moving so that you don't have to push. I've got the keys. I've got the juice to power that venture or save that soul. If you push so hard in your own strength, it's just like pushing a dead car, and it's going to wear you out and exhaust you. You'll be in for a long and grueling uphill fight with a heavy car.

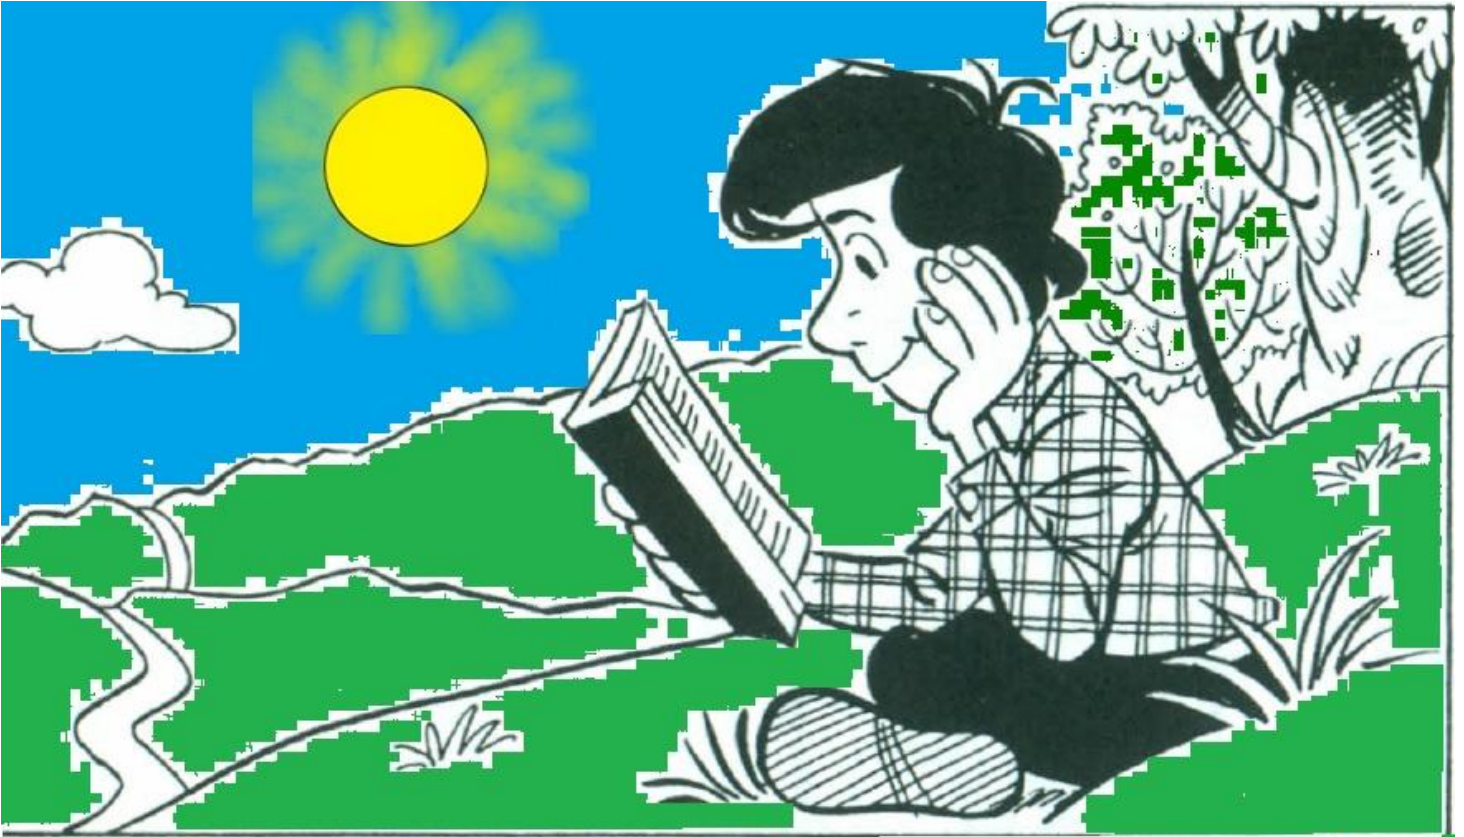

42. Resting in Me is like asking Me for the key so that you can turn the ignition and zoom off into the sunset under My power. It's the difference between pushing the car in your own strength and having the car run by My power.

Words to Meditate On

Prophecies from Jesus

By Maria. ML 3622 10/06

1. Take time to stop, to step out of your realm of confusion, of the cares of this life, of responsibilities, of problems, of weariness and tiredness. Just shut it all out and don't give it a thought. Take a moment to dwell on Me, to dwell on the beauties around you and let your mind wander into My realm. Let it relax in the halls of Heaven. Let it be freed from the confines of the flesh. Let it know peace in My presence, rest in My arms, and dream of that which is heavenly. Let your thoughts fly to Me, your mind pull away from everything that would hold it down, would drag it down, and weigh it down.

2. Let My Spirit rest upon you and fill you with peace. Let My Spirit flow through your thoughts, mingle with your spirit, and give you strength. When our spirits meet, there's a renewing of your spiritual strength, an actual dynamic taking place in the spiritual realm.

3. When our spirits touch in communion, you receive more of My strength, and your gifts and anointing are enhanced and refreshed. As you sit quietly and commune with Me, the cares of this world and the negative influences of the Enemy and all the things that hold you down are filtered out.

4. It's such a beautiful marriage of our spirits, a beautiful touching of our fingertips, and a wonderful meeting of our minds. It's like a psychic phenomenon; it's like mental telepathy. I can translate you into the spirit world while I speak to your thoughts and your heart, and feed you with the things that I know you need. But you have to be still in order to receive. You have to come quietly to Me and let the power flow from Me to you. The longer you sit quietly in communion, the more My power and strength flows to you, and the more complete the connection is made, and the more your spirit receives and is strengthened.

5. You won't even know all the ways that I'm strengthening your spirit; you won't even know all the ways that I'm teaching your spirit, and how I'm giving it new life. But you'll see it manifested later in some physical way. You'll have patience and love in a situation which normally would have tried your patience. You'll find things aren't so difficult, and things don't seem so bad.

6. Thank you for coming to Me in peace and quiet, for putting Me first, and for putting My Word and My Spirit first, before anything else.

7. Imagine that you are in a beautiful green meadow. It's surrounded by trees and blessed with the song of many birds. A rippling brook flows merrily through it. It's the most peaceful place you've ever been in. You feel completely safe and at peace. At the moment you can't remember how you got here; you really don't know anything except that this place is exactly what you need.

8. You're absorbed by the simplicity. You're satisfied by the calmness. You're relaxed because you feel at home. There aren't any other people around, but you know you're not alone. Someone brought you to this meadow ... oh, that's right, now you remember; you were meditating, and that's how you got here.

9. I brought you into the meadow of meditation, My darling. I lifted your spirit out of the world for a spiritual nap on the lush, green grass. I took your hand and said, "Let's run through My creation. We're free in the spirit!" You closed your eyes and your spirit was transported beyond the physical realm to a place of sweet peace--your own personal meadow of meditation.

10. You told Me, "I'm so happy I waited a few more minutes in meditation and that I didn't give up, because I love coming to this place." Yes, My love, this is where our spirits commune in a language that no one else can understand, just you and Me. This is where I whisper words of love and encouragement and strength into your ear, and those words go deep into your spirit and refresh you. Stay here as long as you need to and let Me renew every fiber of your being with the touch of My Spirit. Then you can go back to the wings and carry on your work with new anointing and strength.

11. I'm right here. I'm all around you like a balmy summer breeze, like a soft and cozy blanket, like a soothing balm of relief to cover you from head to foot. I'm not just with you during the happy times when everything is going well, but I'm with you through the tough times when your heart is breaking and your mind is full of questions. Our hearts are one. Whatever you go through, I go through right beside you. I can't help but be connected to your pain or your sorrow because I love you so deeply.

12. I'm the most faithful, adoring, devoted Husband you will ever have. I'm the Husband Who will never ever leave you. I will always be here for you to help you through. I'm always beside you in bed at night, ready to hold you close. I'm the One Who kisses you good morning. I'm the One Who writes love notes to you on the bathroom mirror of your mind. I'm the One Who whispers love words to you that will move your soul and spirit more than any other ever could, because I truly, and deeply, and eternally love you with all of My heart.

13. No matter what happens in your life, or what you have done, I will never stop loving you. Even if you walk out on Me, I will still love you. I'll follow you and find you. I'll knock on your door in the middle of the night and call to you until I see you, even if I wake up all the neighbors. I'll email you. I'll phone you. I'll wave to you whenever I see you. I'll tell everyone around how much I love you. Even if you don't come back into My bed right away, I'll still love you and do whatever it takes to show you that I love you. Why do I do these things for you? Because I am the best Husband you will ever have, the One Who is always here for you no matter what.

14. Prayer is like the silent flight of eagles. You glide through space. You are free, you are wild, you are set apart; it's only you and God and Heaven. You know that nothing is impossible because you're in a heavenly realm.

15. Resting in the Lord is comfort, it's peace, it's something that nothing can replace. It's smiling no matter what the circumstances. It's loving. It's being like Jesus. It's Jesus touching you when you've touched Him.

16. The Lord's beauty takes you to the wonders of His love. Earthly eyes have not seen His beauty, but His beauty is something as wonderful as His love. His beauty has creative power; it transforms all that is ugly into beauty itself. It's what makes the sinner feel loved and beautiful and saved and clean again.

17. The greater the sacrifice, the greater the reward. You never give up anything for Jesus. Only the carnal mind tells you, "This is hardship. This is something I can't enjoy. This is a difficulty. This is what I'm giving up. This is what I have to suffer." If you would listen to your spiritual heart, you would hear, "This is the honor bestowed on you. This is a privilege given only to a few. This is a gift from the hand of Jesus. This is something you will never regret having done. This will make your face shine forever as an eternal testimony of God's thankfulness for your love for Him." His gift to you is that your sacrifice will always shine, like diamonds in the sky.

18. The Lord's love for us is a saving love. It can save us from anything. It can save us from Hell, which is the most obvious salvation. It can save us every day from whatever problem we come across. It can save us when we're in a tight situation. It can save us from pride when we're tempted. It can save our health and our sanity. It can save us from going into debt. It can save us from everything. There's nothing it can't save us from--even ourselves.

19. Jesus is the greatest guru. All you have to do is meditate on Him. Close your eyes, chant His Name--it's the greatest Name in the universe.

His Name calls down power. He surrounds you, He's there with you, He's at your command. There's power at your fingertips. When you meditate on Him, the heavens open and the demons flee. When you invoke His Name, light surrounds you. He is invincible. Meditating on Jesus is the ultimate high, the greatest connect, the greatest transfer of energy there is. He can reincarnate you into the spiritual being you were meant to be, when you've called on His Name.

20. There are no storms in Heaven, only soft breezes. Breezes represent His gentle touches, His soothing manner, His tender love.

21. Stress or calm, which are you living in?--The stress of Hell itself where you're being blown about by every pressure and lack of faith, and where you're singeing others with the hot breath of Satan?--Or are you living in His heavenly calm where there is love and peace, and where you can relay the tender essence of His presence. They are worlds apart. Which world are you passing on to others through your actions?

22. Reach out and hold Me. Reach out and desire Me. Reach out to Me and you will find Me. You will find peace even if you're in the midst of a raging storm. You will find absolutes that you can hold on to when everything seems uncertain. And you will find most of all that no matter what, I am in control. While you just sit here and take the time to hold Me, to put all else aside and to make Me your focus, I have things taken care of. You will feel and know the difference, and most of all you will know that you are pleasing Me above all else.

23. How does a child, a friend, a parent, a lover, a husband, a wife, or a family member know that you love them? What do you think they appreciate the most when it comes to receiving something from you? What would you appreciate the most from those you love? Think about this, and think about what it is that everyone wants the most from the people that they love.

24. I know what I want the most from the ones I love, and it is something that most people long for above all else--and that is, your time and attention. I know that you love Me when you take time with Me, when you sacrifice other things to have that talk with Me, to have that time in My bed of love, to enjoy Me, to rest with Me, to hold Me. Those are proofs of your love for Me and those around you.

25. Find the eye of the hurricane, that special spot where there is perfect calm and quiet. Find that place with Me where, even though the world around you is being tossed about and turned upside-down, you still have peace in the midst of the storm. It takes practice to find the eye of the hurricane, but if you are faithful with your times with Me, resting in Me, dwelling in Me, loving Me, praising Me, and thinking of Me, you will always be able to find that "secret place," where nothing will be able to touch you.

26. Take a moment now and imagine a scene of a confusing, noisy city in rush hour, with horns blaring, people running around, and general mayhem and confusion. That type of scene is never fun, but that is man and his world, and it is the world you can get sucked into in your everyday busy life.

27. But now take a moment to step out of your world and into Mine. Mine is a scene of fields of grass and beautiful flowers. It's a scene of undiscovered waterfalls where everything is lush and pure and clean. Mine is a scene of towering majestic mountains with their snowcapped peaks, where views are breathtaking and there is always a cool, refreshing breeze. Another scene of My world is the powerful, majestic and rolling ocean, the depths of the blue, where there are wonders above and wonders below.

28. My world is there for you to enjoy, to appreciate, and to help you connect with Me. I am in all of the beautiful creation around you, and by appreciating it, you are appreciating Me. By taking the time to stop and enjoy it, you are taking time to enjoy Me and all of My wonders and beauties, and you will be released from the hold that this world has on you.

29. When you're stuck, when you're unsure of an outcome, when you need help--stop and put in a request; ask Me, and do so as often as you like. You can never overdo in asking Me for My help; there is never a point when you can go too far or reach a limit. I give to those who ask. I also have infinite patience and an unlimited ability to give more than you could ask for. So don't be shy, don't hold back in your request, but just start asking. Keep letting Me know what it is that you need help with, or what you want. I love to be kept busy answering your requests and seeing to your needs. Your wish is My command, and I love to do your bidding as you are faithful to do Mine.

30. Walk through My courts and revel in the splendors of My Kingdom! Let Me lavish you with beauty in My chambers, adorn you with My gifts, and array you in the splendor of Heaven! You are My bride, and I am King of all; act and live as My bride has the right to. I have everything to give you and the power to command whatever it is that you want. I am your Husband, and that means that everything that I have is yours as well.

31. I ask for your trust, as a child would trust a parent and a baby its mother. I want you to trust Me that I know what is good for you. Even though it seems like everything is turning out all wrong, I don't want you to struggle or fight against it or harden your heart toward it, but I want you to know by faith that no matter what the outcome, or what you end up with or don't end up with, or how things work out, that you will say in the end: "The Lord is good and He has done all things well."

32. Life isn't about getting to the destination--it's about the journey. So don't think that you have to rush to get to the destination. The destination isn't important; the journey is the important part, what you take time for, what you learn and experience along the way. The journey is also where you find Me and where you learn about Me. That's what life is about, and if you don't take the time to get to know Me, then you will miss the meaning of the whole trip.

33. So don't rush through life putting aside your time with Me or you will miss the whole point, and all that you accomplish and go through will be for naught. Make the most of your journey by spending time with Me, loving Me, seeking Me, and discovering Me. Before you know it, you'll have arrived at your final stop, and I'll be there waiting for you.

34. I treasure your prayers as love gifts to Me. Your prayers exalt Me and honor Me, because they are a manifestation of your belief in My power. Your prayers make Me feel special, loved, and kingly, because you are acknowledging My greatness and superiority to any and all forces on Earth or in the universe.

35. Taking time to simply rest in My arms tells Me that I am the most important thing in your life--that I'm more important than your work, your play, your interactions with others, and even the time that you spend being a student of My Word and the things of the spirit. Whenever you put aside all of the cares of this life to come to Me and be filled by Me, you are telling Me, "Jesus, You are my top priority!"

36. There is no beauty as striking as Mine, no power as potent as Mine, no feelings as stimulating as Mine, no words as truthful as Mine, no stability as sturdy as Mine, no strength as reliable as Mine, no protection as dependable as Mine, no gifts as precious as Mine, no love as enduring as Mine.

37. When I promise you My protection, you have nothing to fear. You'll be protected from anything and everything. Nobody in the world has as much assurance of protection and safekeeping as you have when you put your life into My hands. I'm strong enough to ward off any thugs, big enough to protect you from any bullies, and powerful enough to keep you through any catastrophe!

38. There is no sacrifice that you can make--no matter how tough, no matter how it breaks your heart, no matter how many tears you cry--that I will not more than make up to you. Even before you make a sacrifice for Me, I'm already planning a magnificent reward that will far outweigh it. Your sacrifices are costly gifts of your heart, and it is for you who make those costly sacrifices that the rarest gifts of the spirit are reserved.

39. My love for you cannot be measured, contained, explained, understood, compared, or seen. It must just be accepted for what it is--the purest, truest love you will ever know.

40. Step outside of the box of the hubbub of your life for a few minutes, and stand under the spotlight of My Spirit. Let My love, peace, mercy, patience, comfort, wisdom, renewal, and anointing shine down upon you. Then your spirit will be encased in an aura of My strength and power that will serve you well when you leave My temple of meditation to continue your service to Me.

41. I am not fear; I am peace. I am not worry; I am faith. I am not stress; I am trust. Be all that I am, and you will have the spirit of calm that you desire in your life.

42. Take Me with you today and include Me in all that you do. Don't just call on Me when you have a problem, or when you need an answer--let Me be by your side at all times. I don't want to be a temporary accessory; I want to be a part of you, a part of your life, 24 hours a day!

43. If you want to be like Me, be happy. Smile right now, and smile often. Be cheerful, and light up the lives of others. Be a light bulb of joy to illuminate every dark room. Be a rainbow of hope, even when things are stormy. Be a sunbeam of merriment to warm the hearts of others. That's what I call living life to the full!

44. Don't just pray--live and breathe prayer! Let it flow through you as naturally and automatically as your heart beats and your lungs breathe. Only then can you truly discover the secret, dynamic, full power of prayer.

45. You should rest in Me every single day of your life, and with all your heart. But when I say "all your heart," I don't mean a works trip of rushing around looking for the perfect "rest in Me" program. I don't mean spending your time pouring out your heart for your problems and needs. I don't mean intensely memorizing key promises and verses. I don't mean going through the motions just to check the "rest in Me" box on your to-do list. I mean really, truly stopping and resting in Me.

46. The more inclined you are to turn your meditation time into an intense checklist of activities, the more important it is for you to avoid doing that very thing. You probably need to spend time just clearing your mind and thinking about nothing but My face, or how much you love Me, or how much I love you, or listening to soft music and saying simple praise words to Me. You need this type of meditation on a regular basis.

47. Picture your problems and troubles as a mighty ten-foot giant. He's mean and ugly and ready to dish out a good thrashing! Kind of scary, huh? Okay, now zoom out--zoom way out--and picture Me as a 200-foot tsunami. Now this once scary-looking beast of a giant is so small in comparison to Me that you'll have to strain to see the tiny dot he is. I am so, so much greater and more powerful than all your problems and troubles. So just forget about that tiny speck right now, and enjoy My beauty and majesty.

48. I remember every single sacrifice you have ever made for Me, for your loved ones, and for My service. Every single one. I remember them all, and one day I will remind you of them one by one and reward you accordingly. So never think for a moment that your sacrifices of love are unappreciated, just because you think no one on Earth really noticed. I'm there watching you, My angels are keeping an accurate record, and human eye hath not seen the special and beautiful rewards I have in store for you, My precious bride.

49. When you can't sleep at night, you toss and you turn and you try to get comfortable. You try to relax your body and mind. You try to think positive thoughts. You praise and pray for others, waiting for the blessing of sleep. Then when you finally find that comfortable position and your body is relaxed, your spirit is calm and your mind is at ease, you fall asleep without even realizing it.

50. That's what it's like when you rest in My spiritual arms. At first it might take you a few minutes to get comfortable, a few minutes to leave all the cares of life behind, to slow down in body and spirit so that you can think positive, beautiful thoughts about Me. It takes a little time to enter into My rest, to snuggle up with Me to the point that you are fully relaxed in the spirit, trusting that everything in the wings is under My full control. Then when you finally let everything go and commit it all to Me, when you put your full weight down and trust that I am holding you, you find the sweet rest of My Spirit.

51. It's so beautiful. I love to hold you. I love it when you come to Me for a spiritual cuddle and time of rest. It makes Me so happy because it shows Me that you trust that I'm going to take care of everything, and that loving Me is the most important thing in your life.

52. I look at you with so much love and adoration. I laugh when you laugh. I cry when you cry. I feel when you feel. We are of one heart and one soul.

53. I really like it when you make the most of your time of resting in Me. You've toiled so long and hard in the field of harvest. Your hands and feet ache, your body is weary, and you deserve some time of respite. Just relax your mind, body, and spirit. Let My love flow all over you like a soothing oil. Let peace and quiet overcome all the cares and worries of your work. Your service for Me you will have always with you, so put it aside and take some time to love and appreciate Me, and to simply relax and enjoy Me and My creation.

54. Sometimes the worry and stress of your work is like one of those big knots in your muscles you sometimes get in your back and shoulders. You feel tense and achy, and there's nothing better than having someone come along and massage it all away. This is what I want you to do now mentally and spiritually. Hold still, close your eyes, and let My love and Spirit massage all the stress and pressure away slowly, one stroke at a time, as you hear My words of love to you. Doesn't that feel good? I'm glad. Just lie there and enjoy yourself.

55. When you cast your cares upon Me, make sure that you're thorough, okay? It's easy to keep just a few cares for yourself, but you really have to make an effort not to let that happen. Give them all to Me. All of them. Let Me bear the weight, and you'll feel so light that you could float through the air like a small fluffy cloud without a care in the world.

56. Doesn't it feel great to drink a nice cold glass of lemonade in the middle of a hot day of outdoor labor? It's so cool and refreshing, and gives you energy to keep going. Sometimes that's what you need--a quick glass of cold "resting in Me" in the middle of a day's work. If you start feeling the pressure, if you start to worry and fret, stop for a few minutes, and receive My refreshing words of love and joy, and you will be renewed.

57. Even if the life you're living now for Me was all that you ever had, it would be a life well worth living, a life which pleases Me. But there is more to come than this. All of what you are experiencing and doing is leading to something, building up to something that will amaze you and thrill you and make you glad for every moment that you obeyed, every moment that you listened, every moment that you practiced, every moment that you yielded, and every moment that you gave Me the best part of your life and heart.

58. I love to restore your soul and lead you beside the green pastures and still waters. It can't be all rocky trails and uphill climbs, or you would get too tired and fall by the wayside. So if you feel that you're constantly in desert places, or constantly having to forge ahead up the rocky paths, you can know that somewhere I have green pastures and still waters waiting for you, if you will come to Me. If in your life and work I must have you travel the dry and dusty trails, then you can know that it is in spirit, in the quietness of the heavenly realm, that I will restore your soul in lands of beauty.

59. You're busy, and I know that. I've set My expectations for you pretty high and have asked you to shoot for a lot. But in everything that I've asked of you, I've given you enough time and grace to accomplish My will without having to resort to the arm of the flesh and burn out physically and spiritually. You can meet My expectations of your service to Me while still taking plenty of time to rest in My arms and enjoy the wonderful life I've given you in the spiritual and in the physical. I see the whole picture, and I promise you that there is a time for both--a time to serve, and a time to rest.

60. You belong to Me, and there is never a time when I stop working hard in your life to work all things together for your good. The more that you yield to Me, the more beautiful and easy I can make your life. But even in the times when you make the wrong choices and have to suffer a little more difficulty and hardship, even then My priority is to arrange your life so that you can quickly return to a more pleasant and happy path. I never stop trying to make your life wonderful.

61. You're doing it! You're running the race. You're running bravely and strongly for Me. You've cast off the weights that beset you and you're running fast and hard with your eyes fixed on Me. There is sometimes sweat, there is sometimes pain, but nothing can dim the burning fire in your heart to reach the finish line for Me. You look beautiful, My love. You really shine as you press forward for Me. Keep going, keep running. You're doing so well, and I know you're going to make it. You look so strong! I'm with you, My love, I'm helping you. Keep running!

62. It's not a contest to see how tired or weary you can get. This race is long enough that all will be tired many times at many points. There's no worth in trying to prove your stamina to Me or others by carrying your own burdens and tiring yourself out. There will be many times to struggle and push, but there also need to be many times to rest. Take your rest, My dear one; lay down your burdens. Relax and rest in My arms. Let Me carry you for a while. You've done much for Me and I know you will do so again, but let Me hold you now and replenish your strength.

63. Joy! There is such joy in Heaven over the saved souls that you bring into My Kingdom. With all the other beauties and intricacies of My realm that I've revealed to you, never forget that nothing brings such joy and gladness and happiness to every corner of My Kingdom as does a lost soul coming to know Me, and permanently fixing their place in the Book of Life. There is no greater joy. Oh, how those of you who have sent these many, many souls to Me will shine--you will be glorious; you will shine as the stars for eternity!

64. If you could see the beauties that await you, the perfection of My plan for your life, the magnificence of your destiny, and the intricate order of your life, you would never worry so much about the trials of this life, or spend so much time burdened with many fears and cares. Your life is in My hands. Your life belongs to Me. I will not let anything touch you that is not going to someday seem beautiful and pure when you see it from My perspective. There is no reason to fear the future; it is safely in My hands.

65. I teach you two concepts in tandem: the explosive, blow'm up, raw power of the spiritual weapons, and also the strength of stillness and quietness. You must learn both lessons, My love, if you are to be the soldier that I need. You must be the fire on the mountain, and you must also be the still, small voice. Embrace both of these parts of My nature equally, and you will receive My perfect balance.

66. Worrying about a problem won't get you anywhere; taking action--whether in prayer or deed--is all that really matters. So when you come to the end of what you can do for a problem or situation, don't keep thinking about it and using up needless energy. Just let Me take the action that only I can. Either you can help something or you can't. And if you can't, that's great! It's just another chance for Me to show My power.

67. There is real power in music. My good, godly music can heal and strengthen your spirit. Make sure that you're availing yourself of all the beautiful music that I've poured down from Heaven. Just as the music of Satan is laced with the wiles of Pan and the netherworld, My good music carries many beautiful accompanying spirit beings of joy, love, peace, dedication, yieldedness, discipleship, intimacy with Me, faith, power, and strength.

68. To grow and bear fruit for Me you have to be constantly and consistently drinking the sap from the vine. The secret is to stay immersed in Me, always listening, always loving, always open to Me. Your heart doesn't pump one big spurt of blood at the start of the day and leave it at that. A plant doesn't shoot out one load of sap and that's all that the leaves or branches get for the rest of the day. No, the secret to how both the plants and your body function in such perfection and are so durable and constantly rejuvenated is in the steady stream, the constant life-giving flow of the blood and sap. I am your Lifeblood, I am the Sap. Take Me in continually and let Me circulate in you and nourish you, and you will find the secret of strength and growth and fruitfulness.

69. Things aren't random and they don't happen by accident. There is a wonderful plan at work that runs deeper than you know. My force flows through life, affecting your personal destiny, the destiny of the Family, and the destiny of the world you live in. Don't fall for the Enemy's "big bang" lies that there is no purpose and no reason and you don't seem to be getting anywhere. My plan is on schedule and things are happening exactly when and where I know they should. There is a reason for everything.

70. More prayers, spiritual action, and love rise to Me from most of your beds than from most church buildings in the world. Make a temple of your bedroom today by using it to rest in Me, to love Me, to hear from Me, to pray to Me, and to connect with Me before you sleep and when you wake. It's a wonderful thing how much you can do with something as simple as a bed when your heart and spirit are connected with Me.

71. It's sometimes easy to feel that what you've sacrificed here is lost forever. Sometimes you even forget some of your sacrifices, and maybe you think that I have forgotten them as well. But one day when you're Home in Heaven, I'm going to show you every sacrifice that you ever made for Me on Earth. I'm going to take you through the display of all that you gave up and laid aside for Me, and next to each item you will see and receive the full reward for each one.

72. Right now, you do receive rewards for the things that you have sacrificed. There are many ways that I bless you and reward you and give back to you on Earth in return for all that you have given to Me. But no matter how greatly I have repaid you so far, you can rest assured that your repayment for each sacrifice has yet to be made in full. Only upon entry to Heaven will you receive the complete package of reward and repayment that I have set aside for you.

73. Your sacrifices are in some ways like a down payment, the cost you put aside to ensure that My great blessings and rewards are yours. Your sacrifices on Earth are making you billionaires in the spirit. One day, once life's journey is done, you will receive the full prize and blessing that each of your sacrifices has earned you.

74. It's not impossible to find that perfect peace and rest that My Word talks about. "I will keep him in perfect peace whose mind is stayed on Me, because he trusteth in Me." What is perfect peace? Perfect peace is when little things don't disrupt your focus on Me; when problems, dilemmas, setbacks, and interferences don't even jolt your connection of faith and trust in Me.

75. Perfect peace is when you find yourself in the midst of great confusion, persecution, perilous times, hectic schedules, or frantic circumstances, and yet you are stable and calm in your assurance of My protection, My perfect control, and My hand in your life and situation. Perfect peace is when nothing can come between your faith and Me. Perfect peace is when your mind is locked on My channel and cannot be moved.

76. How do you get that perfect peace? It says it very clearly right there in the verse: "...because he trusteth in Me." Start trusting Me. Show your trust in Me through your praises to Me. Show your trust in Me through spending time with Me and casting your cares on Me. And as you do, I will keep you in perfect peace, and you too will gain this spirit of perfect peace within you.

77. My love, it's going to be okay. I know there are things that are bothering you right now. You have worries and fears about certain aspects of your life and your future, and it's hard for you to put these things completely in My hands. You feel that you have to hold on to these concerns to some degree in order to ensure that they are taken care of or seen to. But you see, the more you hold on to them, the less power I have over them.

78. If you truly want Me to take care of these difficulties, then you need to truly let go of them. Just give them to Me right now. Commit them to Me. Tell Me that you don't want to hold on to them anymore; you don't want to worry about them. Tell Me that you're going to trust Me to work them out. Remember, I will perfect those things that concern you.

79. Have you ever stopped to listen to the silence? Have you ever stopped just to be quiet?--Not quiet in prayer, or quiet in hearing from Me, but just to be quiet? Quietness is a virtue, and it takes practice to perfect this art of stillness and calm. But it's so beneficial. This quietness teaches you stillness of mind, because your mind must be quiet too for you to really enjoy that state of quiet calm.

80. Be still. Listen to the silent wind, the quiet breeze. Calm your mind; let it be still and without thought. Shhh. This is the stillness that David spoke of in "Mountain Men," the stillness that connects you with Me, that draws your spirit closer to Mine. Enjoy a quiet moment with Me every so often; let My stillness possess you and teach you how to be calm and quiet before Me.

81. You work so hard for Me. Maybe you feel like there's so much more you could be doing for Me, and you feel bad that you don't do enough or more. But let Me tell you how thankful I am for all that you do for Me. I am so thankful for how hard you work each day to further My Kingdom and My work. You're a faithful servant. I'm so proud of you! Don't let the Devil tell you that you don't do enough for Me, and condemn you for all that you don't do and all that you aren't. Give Me your ear. I love all that you do for Me. You make Me so happy. I'm not displeased with you at all! I see your labors as labors of love, as gifts of love to Me, and that makes Me glad. I love you so much, My precious hard worker.

82. You thrill Me! You know the high some get from extreme sports or extreme roller-coaster rides? You know that exhilarating feeling that makes you want to scream?--Not because of fear, but because of intense excitement? You make Me feel that way. Experiencing your life on Earth together with you is thrilling for Me! I ride the highs and the lows with you, the bumper times and the smooth sailing times, the straight, fast-paced stretches, and the windy, twirling drops. Life with you is My intense excitement. Traveling with you is exhilarating, exciting, and thrilling! I can't get enough of life with you. I never want this journey to end--and I've designed it so that it never will! There will never be an end to our journey together. What began on Earth will carry on for eternity! And that, My love, is what I call an awesome prospect!

83. When you want to enter into meditation with Me, but your mind seems like such a muddle and so busy with thoughts and cares, that is not beyond My power to change for you. You just need to ask it of Me. You need to have real faith. You need to come to Me with a promise in hand of what you expect Me to do for you. I would change the world for you if you asked it of Me. I would divide oceans, move mountains, and reverse times and seasons for you, if you asked it of Me in faith. Is it not a little thing for Me to clear your mind and calm your spirit? So when you ask this of Me, let Me know that you believe I will do it for you. Let Me know that you even count it as done, and know that what you ask for, you will receive.

84. Let Me ask you this: if your Home had a supporter, a king, who was wealthy beyond measure, and who held a high position of authority in your country, and who had told you time and again that if you ever needed anything--financial support, safe passage to another country or area, some need met or supplied for, some paperwork to come through swiftly, an important appointment to come through, swift approval for a project, new housing with specific specifications--If he had told you to just ask him and he would do it for you, would you hesitate to ask? Now, let Me ask you this: Why, then, do you ever hesitate to ask Me, the greatest King and Supporter you will ever have?

85. It's so important that you take time to think about Me, and meditate on Me each day, even if it's only for a few moments. This pausing to reflect on My face, to think about My promises, to remind yourself of My deep love for you, and to communicate with Me heart to heart, strengthens and encourages your spirit for the little fights you will encounter that day. This sweet little communion connects us and it helps you to remember Who's really in control and Who's really gotta do it all. Try to take this time each day, even if for only a few moments.

86. One day you are going to see Me just as you have imagined Me. One day I am going to break through the thin veneer of your sky and shower My radiance, brilliance, magnificence, and majesty upon the Earth. Angels will herald My second coming, just as they did My first. The air will be filled with the sound of the trumpet. You will hear the praises of the saints and the angels as they peer from heavenly curtains to watch My Bride's beautiful return. You will hear music, the most beautiful sounds you have ever heard.

87. And in that moment, when you see Me coming through the clouds with such strength and beauty, our eyes will lock and you will hear Me speak to your heart personal words just for you. In that moment, the entire memory of the Great Tribulation will be washed away as if it were only a moment, only a small speck of time in the whole scope of eternity. Your life on Earth will suddenly seem short-lived, as you rise to embrace Me and to enter Heaven in My arms. You will know then, in that twinkling of an eye, that it was so worth it all.

88. One glimpse of My face and all your sorrows will be forever erased. One glimpse of My glory and greatness will overwhelm you into complete rapture. Oh, My darling, I can hardly wait for the day! What a beautiful thing we have to look forward to! What a beautiful, compelling promise we have to hold onto--our wonderful reunion, My glorious return. Hold on, darling, it won't be long now.

LOVE-MAKING WITH JESUS!

MO. London, 15/1/73 ML1525

--Is Bound to Bear Fruit!

1. FIRST YOU'VE GOT TO HAVE SO MUCH LOVE & FAITH YOU OBEY, You come when He calls. You must be willing to be stripped bare before Him. You're just you & that's what He wants. He doesn't want your fancy clothes & fancy duds. He wants you. You have to come when He calls because He can't wait.

2. YOU'VE GOT TO DROP EVERYTHING, FORSAKE ALL, COME IMMEDIATELY, be willing to be stripped bare, abandon all your cover-ups & just exposed yourself to Him. And then you've got to let Him make love to you. First you yield your ears to Him, when He call, you come & obey in submission & yield. You prostrate yourself before the Lord.

3. THEN YOU YIELD YOUR MOUTH & TONGUE & BOSOM & HEART, & then that part of you that receives His inspiration & inspires you. And He fills you with His seed & you bear fruit. You must concentrate & put everything else out of your mind, your business, your problems, your tiredness, & everything & just concentrate & think about Him.

4. Impotency is a result of fear born of pride. If you don't have the pride then you're not worried about it.

5. I HAVE TO BE FILLED WITH THE SPIRIT in order to be able to inspire. It's not just one time, but you have to keep coming back to be filled with the Spirit again and again.

6. THE IMPOTENT HASN'T GOT ENOUGH OF THE SPIRIT, and the reason is, he's holding back & not willing to give his all & lie stripped before the Lord let the Lord empower him.

7. SOMETIMES GOD MAKES THE ADVANCES sometimes you initiate them. If you just receive the kisses on the outside & let Him cover you with kisses, but you don't let Him in, it's because of fear you might bear fruit & have babies!

8. YOU HAVE TO HAVE FAITH TO OBEY & come & strip off the outer appearance & cover ups & false fronts & expose yourself to the Lord & totally yield yourself to the Lord in submission. And then if you do your part, the Lord will do His & inspire you & fill you with His Spirit. Inspire & spear & spirit, inspiration & spirit must all come from the same root. The Spirit of His inspiration is what fills you with His Spirt.

9. YOU MAKE LOVE TO HIM, but then He has to make love to you. And the other little Brides have to be willing, too. Some Brides want to be, "Well, we're the only ones who have it, & we're going to keep it."

10. IT'S LIKE US WITNESSING. Those who have already been inspired, they go & want others to be inspired. The one that's had the inspiration has to be unselfish & sacrificial & willing to share & to say, "Come to the feast & be inspired." You not only bring forth fruit once you've been inspired, but you go out & share & witness & bring others to be inspired.

11. THERE ARE ONLY A FEW THAT STAY CLOSE TO THE LORD. Our kids are like the few who stayed close to the Lord & in bed every day with the Lord & getting inspired, compared to the vast many, like the church people who have known the Lord but have not stayed close to His side. The church people are still in the same room, but not in bed with Him. We call others to come share His bed! He'll thrill you & fill you.--And bear fruit!

12. SOME OF THE CHURCHES ARE AN OLD JEALOUS & SELFISH BRIDE & CONCEITED. All she's concerned with is the wealth & adornments & the house & her jewelry, & all she wants to do is jealously keep the Lord & her over-aged children to herself, but she can't even satisfy her Bridegroom! Once we've been inspired, then we go call others, & when they've been inspired, then they go & call still others.

13. "EVEN AS THE FIRE BEARER GOES FROM VILLAGE TO VILLAGE LIGHTING THE FIRES, even so thou shalt be lit by My heart so thou canst go from heart to heart."

14. ALL THESE THINGS MAKE YOUR FIRE GO OUT: Laziness, failure to refuel or shelter from the storm, not giving constant attention. Like with the furnace, if I let it go down too low, it's hard to get it revived again.

15. THE CHURCH SEEM TO THINK THEY GET THE SPIRIT THROUGH THEIR MOUTH, But "out of the innermost being shall flow rivers of Living Water." "Out of my bowels." (Jn.7:38.) "How wonderful are the things Thou dost show unto David!"

16. YOUR TONGUES TOUCH & THEN YOUR MOUTHS, then your hearts, then you're inspired. In one explosive orgasm you can get your inspiration without any explanation!

17. AN ORGASM IS LIKE AN ELECTRICAL EXPLOSION--explosion of the spirit--goes right through every fiber of your being! To really explode you have to absolutely let yourself go! You can go again & again. Of course, you can't go too long or you'll get exhausted.

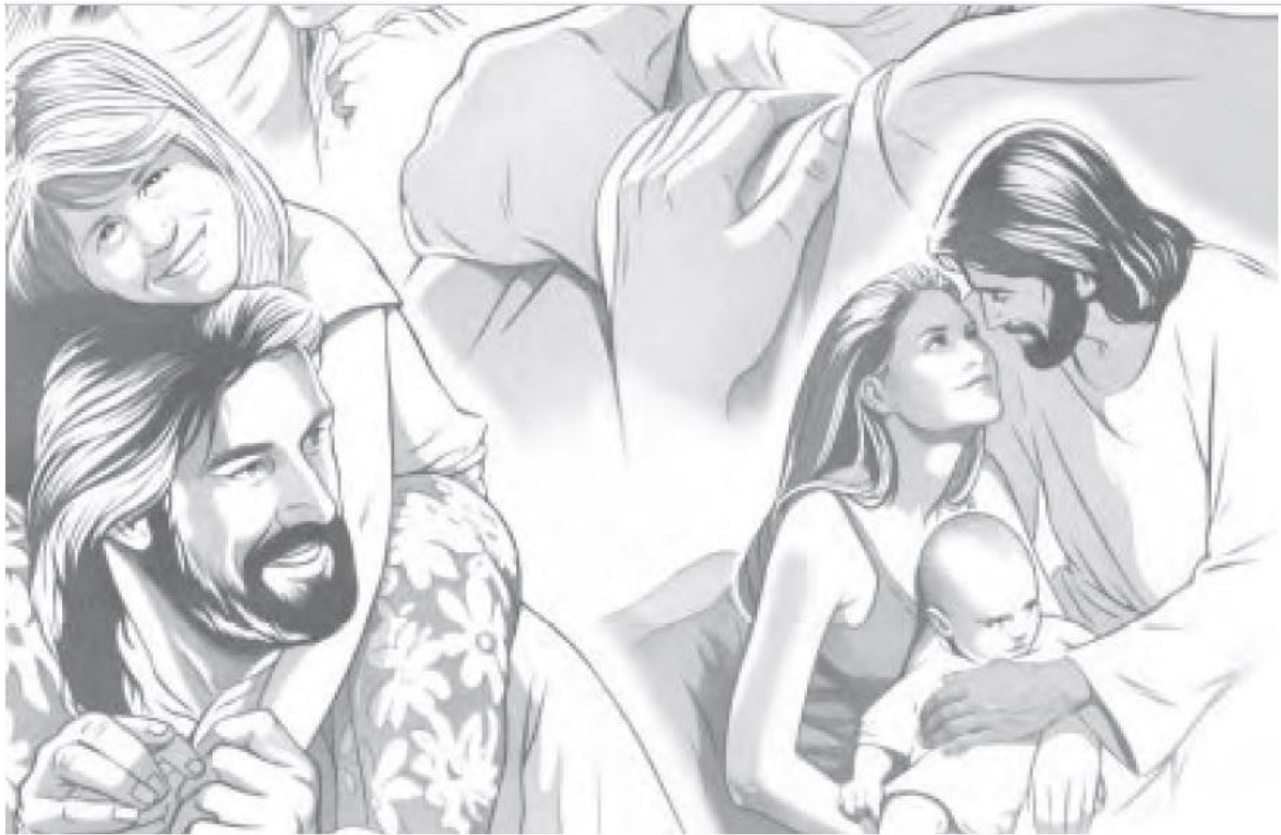

18. RIGHT AFTER STARTING THE ENGINE, THE BATTERY'S REAL LOW. After the battery' exploded & given its electrical shock it's down & it has to rest awhile, then it comes up again. But if you leave it on all the time, it will go flat. You've got to keep well-fed & rested in the Lord so you can really get inspired. You have to have some energy of your own in order to be inspired.

19. SOME OF THE OLDER CHURCHES ARE EVEN LIKE A DEAD BRIDE, a cold & unresponsive body which has received Him, which has been fucked & seed left in, but gives no response. The seed of His Word has died within her because she is without life & strength to respond & conceive & therefore bears no fruit & has no children, resulting in spiritual genocide! She has become a stinking dead body, an abomination to the Lord, unclean & contaminating, & remains only to be buried!

20. SO HE HAS RAISED UP HIS NEW CHURCH, a young Bride, bursting with energy & a passionate love for her Bridegroom!--An alive, vibrant, warm, living, beautiful body that responds quickly, fervently & ardently to His slightest touch & who is widely ravished with His Love! ("Praise Me for the Words that I give unto David!") She is exploding with the organs of His Spirit & strong to conceive many children unto Him from being filled with the seed of His Word! Hallelujah!

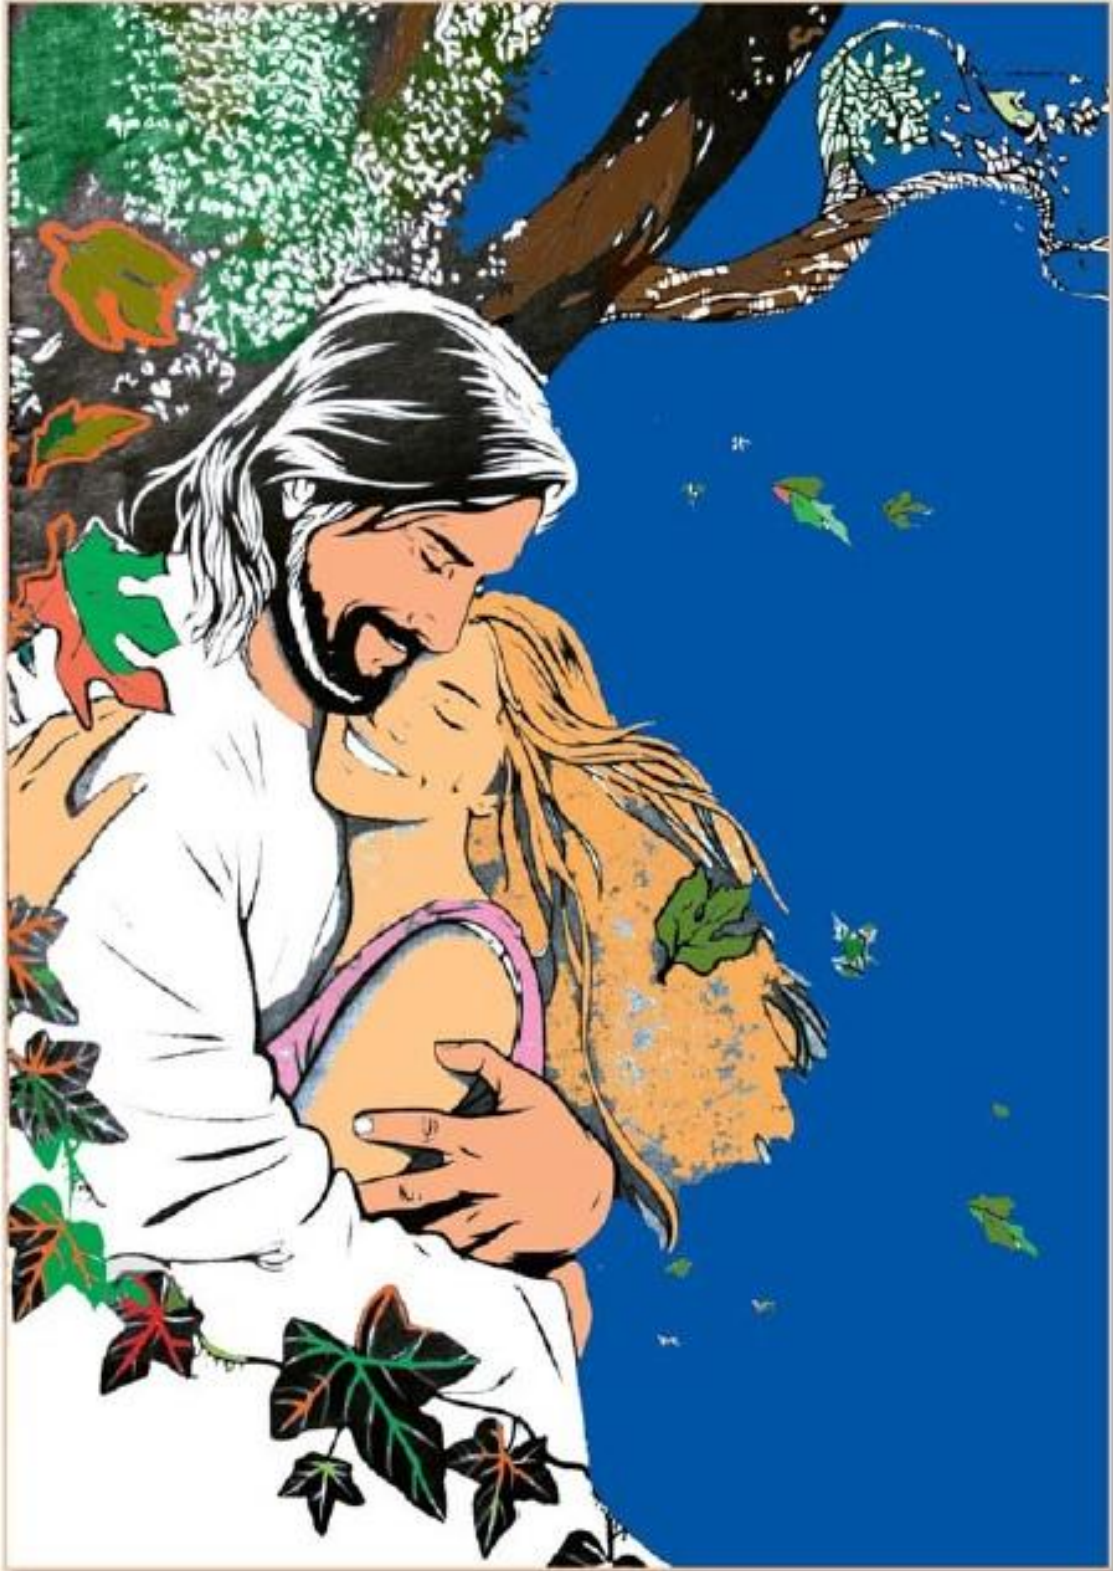

21. THESE ARE THE CHILDREN OF GOD & this is what makes them what they are today!--The busy bouncy buxom Bride, bursting with bearing babies for her Bridegroom!

LOVING JESUS

By Maria ML #3029 Condo

"My Bride!"

32. (Jesus:) As My whole Church is My Bride and as each individual is My Bride, so is each Home My Bride. My whole Church must worship and love Me, and each individual must worship and love Me, and each Home must worship and love Me. For I look upon each as My Bride, whether I look upon the whole, or whether I look upon the Home, or whether I look upon the individual. Thus I must receive love from the whole, from the part, and from the individual.

33. For I love to be loved and I love to love. I love to receive love. I love to give love. So few understand My need to be loved, My desire to be loved. So few understand My desire to be wanted, My desire to be called for and told that I am wanted, that I am needed, that I am desired, that I am lovely. In this I find great pleasure and great happiness, and for this purpose created I My children to love Me.

34. Why do you think I was so angry at the children of Abraham?--Because I loved them, I gave unto them, and they turned away and spurned Me. They hurt Me. They did not receive My Love, and they did not love Me in return; but instead went awhoring after other gods. Why am I so displeased with the Old Church? Because they stopped loving Me. And why am I well pleased with you? Because you love Me! You have loved Me with your works, with your child-rearing and with your obedience. But now I wish for you to love Me with your words, with your spirit. I wish for you to love Me with all of your heart, with all of your mind, with all of your spirit, with all of your strength, with all of your soul!

35. For I wish to be loved in the way that I truly wish to be loved. So come, come I say, come in unto Me and be My Bride! For I long to be loved as a lonely man who does not seem to be lonely because He has so many friends and so much family, yet He lacks a sweetheart and darling.

36. Please come, come to Me and be My darling! Come to Me and be My sweetheart! Come to Me and be My wife, My Bride! For you will find great love and great treasure, and you will find great reward. For does not the husband love to pour forth gifts of love, tokens of love and appreciation for the love that his loving wife gives unto him? I seek to be in love with you, and I seek for you to be in love with Me, that we may have a new relationship.

37. When (your Queen) understood and when she began to say "yes" (to Peter, her new husband) and when she began to yield, so did I pour forth a new love into her heart, and oh, that changed the picture! So will it be with My children who will take the step. They will go from a formal love, from an understanding love, to a passionate love, a desirous love! And oh, there is such a difference!

38. So come! Come! Come, My Bride! Come, My loves! Come, I call, come! We shall revel in great joy and great passion, and you shall receive great love, great strength and great gifts! For you will be married unto a King and you will be a queen unto Me, and I will bestow upon you far above all that you could ask or think! For I will love you, and I will ravish you, and I will pour forth unto you; and you will be known as My Queen, as My Bride!

39. You will be a Queen, and you will be greatly loved and greatly ravished in My arms! For you will be My Bride and you will be My true love and you will be crowned Queen above all! (End of prophecy.)

Jesus' Need for Love!

"Look at the relationship between the Church and the Lord. We're all needed and we're all members of the same Body, and we're all the Lord's Bride, we're all married to the same Husband, but there's still a personal relationship between you and the Lord that doesn't include a lot of other people. Your personal private relationship with the Lord is one on one" Dad (ML #2023:31).

47. (Maria:) Even though He is offering us such a marvelous place by His side, with many wonderful privileges and rewards attached, He knows that there is a commitment to be made. We have to give up some of our independence, some of our pride. We have to be willing to be there just for Him and to do whatever pleases Him. We have to be yielded to His wishes. He assures us that He will honor our yieldedness and humility, and He will give us back more--much more--than we could ever imagine!

Words of Love to the Lord!

51. (Maria prays:) Jesus, we need You to show us how to praise You and thank You for Your wonderful Love. We need to know what words to say to convey it. We know the Spirit can speak through us in tongues and You understand that, but we believe that You want us to tell You in words that we understand too. We want to express in words how we feel from the depths of our hearts. We love You, Jesus, and want to tell You.

52. Your Love is so great! It's overflowing and overwhelming! We're enveloped in it, and Your Heavenly Love just gushes all over us! It's more than a touch--it's many touches!--And the touches all run together into a whole flood of Love! It's so much, Lord, we don't even know how to describe it! It flows all over us and overflows us and feels so good. It's so wonderful! We feel so secure and so loved, so cared for, and we want to share it with others so they can know it too!

53. You're right here with us, so personal and real. We know You desire us and You really want us to love You, because You love us. It makes You happy when we do, and we want to make You happy. So please, Lord, tell us what to say. How do we tell You we love You? How do we express our love to You? What do You want us to say? (End of prayer.)

54. (Jesus:) Can you describe the very depths of the sea--or the highest points of the universe? Can you describe the deep things of the Spirit? Then how can you describe this great love that we have together with mere words of man? For My Love for you is all-encompassing, it is all Love, and it is unintelligible in the words of man.

55. But you desire to tell Me in words your love for Me. You must look unto those things that you relate to and that I have given to you to help you grasp and to understand this love. For as a man and a woman love one another, and say words of endearment, do so unto Me.

56. This love that is in your heart for Me is much greater than words, but the words help you to understand and help you to focus. So use these words with Me, for am I not your Husband? Are you not the Bride of Christ? Why do you think I give you these illustrations? For, lo, I could have given any illustration, but I chose one that you could understand, and that would put things in the right perspective so that everyone could see and understand how I want them to be with Me.

57. These precious words of love to Me are as special incense, special prayers that come up before Me, that fill My halls with a special perfume, a perfume of love! It excites Me! It thrills Me! For when I smell this perfume in the halls of Heaven, I look upon you with great love and with great care and with great excitement, and I want to fill you to overflowing like none other can fill you!

58. Yes, I want praise and adoration, I want words of thanksgiving, but they that love Me most understand that I also want words of love. (End of prophecy.)

Pulling Back the Veil of His Word!

66. "God actually needs us and wants us and is in love with us, His Bride! ... What does God need from us? The thing He really wants the most is that intimate fellowship and love.--Just like a man needs sex from his wife most of all, her loving intimate fellowship. And then he also needs her service--he needs her to keep house and cook for him, etc. He does need us very much to meet His need for intimacy. He likes to love us with the Word, the seed, right? ... The thing He needs from us the most is that intimate fellowship in the Spirit!" Dad ("God's Bride!" ML #1389:13-15).

Loving Jesus in the Spirit!

71. "And who's His Bride?--We are! All of us!--Not just you women, but all of us in this case! It's kind of a strange symbolism, but that's the way it is! Christ's Bride is both male and female, because there is no male nor female in Christ Jesus! (Gal.3:28)." Dad ("Heavenly Society!" ML #1569:11).

73. (Jesus:) I say unto you, there is no male or female in Christ Jesus, for you are all one. You are all Mine. You are all My Bride, the Bride of Christ. Did I not say unto David that after he was gone, it would be a day of women? For I have foretold of this day, the day when the weaker vessel shall become strong, that in weakness and in meekness you shall find your strength. Do not women have that sixth sense, that touch with the Spirit, because of their weakness? So do I wish to impart this unto all of you, My Bride.

74. For I say unto you, I am the Bridegroom, you are the Bride. For Here things are different and we see things differently. There you have the distractions of life and of the flesh, and you do not understand the things of the Spirit; at least not fully, for you only see through a glass darkly. But I shed some light into your darkness, and I say unto you, there is no male nor female in Me.

75. For what is it to you? Do I not also call you warriors and soldiers? Do the women say, "Oh, well, that's not me, for I am a woman"? Do I not sometimes call you children? My children? The children of David? Do you all say, "Oh, but I am a man"? No, you just accept! So if I can call you children, if I can call you soldiers and men, can I not call you My Bride?

76. Be not afraid to humble yourselves in My sight. For I love the humble, I love the weak, I love the meek, I love My Bride, and I love you.

77. I know you are strong soldiers, fighters, diligent in business! I have made you warriors of David, My soldiers, My valiant ones! But with all this strength and all this power and all this valiantness, you have need of more. You have need of great humility, great meekness and great weakness. So I ask you to lay down the armament of war and to play the role that I have asked you to play, of the meek and the weak, of the woman, of the bride, of My darling. This humbles you, but it also empowers you. For it is this that will make you the strong soldiers that you need to be for the days ahead. (End of prophecy.)

78. "When God has given you a role to play and you can play it with divine anointing and real inspiration of the Lord and by the power of His Spirit, you become that creation of God!" Dad (ML #328:19).

79. (Maria:) Isn't it interesting that the Lord made reference to this being a "day of women"? This phrase was originally given to Dad in "The Shepherdess" prophecy. It says, "It shall be a day for women, and they shall rule My people with a kind hand and gentle staff and such words of love, so precious, so beautiful!" (ML #837:34). The Lord said way back then that after Dad was gone it would be a day for women. Now He is telling us that this is what He meant--not that our females would take over, but that we all, women and men, would begin to love Him as our Husband, as our Bridegroom, and be His Bride and His wife in the Spirit!

You're His Bride--The Holy Spirit Prophecy!

81. (Prophecy, Holy Spirit speaking:) Behold, I am the Comforter that goes forth upon all the Earth calling out, calling out and saying, `Come! Come, come, for I seek brides for My Son, My Beloved Son! Come, come, come be His Bride! Come to know Him!' For it is He that purchased your salvation by His Own blood. And I love Him so much that I want Him to have many brides as one. So come, I say, come unto Him as a bride!

82. For though We Three are One, We have different ministrations. Is this not manifested even in your teamworks, where the teamwork is one and works together and counsels together and decides together, but each person has different ministrations, different portfolios? This, too, is a manifestation of how We work together as One, and counsel One with Another, but in different ministrations. For I am the Comforter, and He is the Father, and He is the Son, the Savior.

83. When you love One, you love All. If you love Me, you love the Father and the Son. And if you love the Son, you love Me and the Father. But the only way to truly love Us is through the Son, for He purchased your salvation through His blood and through His sacrifice and through His Love. To truly love Us and to truly know Us, you must come through that Door, for He is the manifestation of

Our Love. He is the face of Our Love. He is the embodiment of Our Love. And because He has purchased your salvation, you are His, His Bride.

84. You can love Me, and you can love the Father, but you are the Bride of Christ, our Son. As you love and desire Him, so you receive of Us. Because He is married to you, so We are married to you, for We are One. But We call you unto Us through Him, for He is the Door, He is the Husband, He is the Shepherd, and He is the Lamb that was sacrificed for you. As He gave His life for you, is it any great thing for you to be His wife?

85. If you wish for Me to come, I will come unto you, for I am the Comforter, I am Understanding. As a mother gives unto her children to comfort them, to help them and to strengthen them, to help them understand, so it is with Me, and so will I come unto you. But He is your Husband, and you are His wife, His Bride.

86. For the ways of God are higher than the ways of man and cannot always be understood by men. Many cannot even understand how My Son, Who died so long ago, could forgive their sins, that His sacrifice could atone for their sins today. Many believe, not because they understand, but because they have faith, and they receive Him by faith, not understanding. Yet they believe and are rewarded for their belief and for their faith. As they act in obedience, so are they rewarded. When the time comes that they pass over to this side, that belief is tangible, and that which they only believed is seen and felt, and it is no longer by faith but it is reality.

87. If you believe that My Son atoned for your sins, and if you can give your life in faith to serve Him, then why can you not believe that We have called you to love Him and to be His Bride?

88. So come! Come, come, come, be the Bride of My Son!

Come, come, come,

Ravish Him with your love!

Come, come, come,

Love Him, love Him, My Son!

Come, come, come,

Be loved by Him from Above!

(End of prophecy.)

Newspaper/Love Letter and More Intimacy!

96. (Jesus:) I will ask you a question: What do you prefer to read--the morning newspaper, or a letter from the one you're in love with? If reading the seeds is only like reading the newspaper or reading a book, then it is not enough. When you read the seeds it must be as a letter from your loved one, as a letter from Me. It must stir your heart and stir your passions! It is not enough just to read, for this is formal. You must absorb as the body absorbs the seeds, to be strengthened and to benefit from the reading that you do.

97. You will love My Words if you know the Author as Adam knew Eve. If you truly love Me, then the seeds take on a whole new meaning; the Words become life, they become joy! Yes, yes, yes, you must have the Words, you must be full of the Words! But you must take time in the bed of love, too, to love Me, and to tell Me of your love, to tell Me of your desire for Me. For in this way we become one.

98. When you are ready to read My Words, stop for a moment and tell Me that you love Me, tell Me that you care, tell Me that you want Me. Just tell Me that you are ready and you are open, that I may send forth these Word seeds into you, and as you read the seeds, they will do the work in you which I have ordained. For the seeds are love letters from Me. The seeds are the Words of life, which bring forth life and fruit in your life!

99. If we are married, if we are one, if you are My Bride, then yes, I want you to read My Words and to receive My seeds in this way. But I also want to receive your love in the bed of love where you whisper to Me, and you tell Me of your love. And thus you can receive seeds this way too.

100. Just understand, My children, I desire your love. I desire your love even more than you have shown Me until now. For we have been married, and we have had a good marriage, and we have been good friends, and we have been a good team, and we have accomplished a great deal. We have raised abundant children, and our children are happy and they are fruitful! But we have more awaiting us, more intimacy, and this is what I am seeking now. This is what I am calling for. This is what I am yearning for!

101. For you are My Bride, and I wish to give you My seeds in a new way. As the days get darker and the times more difficult, loving Me and being in love with Me and being close to Me and being intimate with Me will help you through, and things will look brighter. As you love Me and look to Me and face Me and face My light and face My seeds and call for Me, all else will fade; and we will be one.

102. For truly you will know that we are one. You will know that I have strengthened you; and you will know that I have blessed you, and that I have honored you as the king honors his queen, as the husband honors his wife, and says, 'Yes, here she is, here is the one that loves me. Here is the one that bears my children. Here is the one that receives my seeds.'

103. When you plant seeds in the ground, you cannot plant them in the cold and the hard ground, for they will not germinate and grow, they will not bring forth fruit. The seeds must be planted in the warm earth so that they can bring forth the fruit which they are ordained to bring forth. So is the seed of My Word. It must be implanted in the warmth of your heart, in the warmth of your spirit. And how do you have a warm spirit? By snuggling close to Me and by receiving My kisses and caresses, that you may be warm and ready for the implantation of My seeds.

104. When you come before Me to read My Words, just tell Me you love Me, that is all I need. Tell Me you want Me. Tell Me you desire Me. Tell Me you want My seeds, and I will bring forth new life in those seeds! They will bring forth new meaning, for they have treasures new and old. You will be delighted and you will see by the fruit that the Words I say unto you are true, and that I will bless you as you do these things.

105. I love you with a great love, and if you will pour forth your love unto Me in this way, I will pour forth a love upon you and a blessing upon you that there will not be room enough to contain! And these who scoff and these who mock shall marvel! They shall know that you have been known by Me, and that I have loved you and I have placed My blessing upon you, that I have put My mantle upon you and that you are Mine, I am yours, and we are one! (End of prophecy.)

A Step Further in the Same Direction!

115. (Maria:) This intimate way to love the Lord is not a complete change of direction. In fact, it isn't a change of direction at all. It's just going a step further in the same direction we have already been going. This is an extra step to draw us closer to Him so we can go even further with Him. He says, "But you and I have more awaiting us, more intimacy, and this is what I'm seeking now. This is what I'm calling for. This is what I'm yearning for!" The Lord is asking us to show our love for Him more intimately so He can give us the seeds of strength and love and anointing that we're going to need for the tough times ahead. He wants us to want more and to be eager to do anything we can to get more of His seeds, more of Him, more of His Words.

Another New MO Letter Hot Off Heaven's Press!

135. (Dad in prophecy:) The Lord and His courts are excited! They are electric with anticipation and they wait to see if you will do that which has been asked of you. You know, the Lord ... says that there are so few who will believe what they receive and who have the faith to put it into action. There are so few who are willing to be truly humbled in the sight of man that they may be exalted in His sight; so He has great thankfulness for you, His children who are willing, His children who obey.

136. The Lord looks at this as a great gift! So receive the gift, just receive it and believe it! You don't have to understand every facet, you don't have to examine it top to bottom, side to side, and try to figure it out. Receive it! You'll be greatly blessed by it. The Lord sees it as a blessing. He sees the victory, He sees the love, He wants the love. He wants to bestow upon you greater love than you have ever known!

137. So let Him, won't you? Please let Him. Let Him receive your love, let Him give you His Love. You have no idea how much happiness it will bring to Him, and you have no idea how much happiness it will bring to you! You have no idea what strength in Spirit it will bring for your obedience and faith! You have no idea how much it will prepare you for that which is ahead! You have no idea how much it will change your lives, how much it will grow your spirit, how much more you will be connected to Him, the Source of all strength, all power, all wisdom!

138. And it's yours through simple faith, through simple yieldedness, through simple obedience. So give Him your love so that He can bless you, prepare you and strengthen you. Give Him your love just because you love Him. Give Him your love so that you can learn more about how much He truly loves you, as knowing that will help you through the hardships ahead--the hardships of tribulation, the hardships of loss. For His way up is down--down in humility, down through the tests and the trials.--But up, up in the Spirit, up in victory, and finally up into His arms where He will comfort and love you beyond measure!

139. So don't disappoint Him, He's looking for your love! He's wanting your love! He's waiting for your love and anticipating your love. So give freely, and He will freely give unto you! (End of prophecy from Dad.)

The King Who Has Everything, But Seeks to Be Loved!

141. (Jesus:) I need your love and your loving. For though I am King of all the universe and even beyond, of all things, I cannot have your love unless you give it to Me, for I have made it this way. For I am as a King Who has multitudes at My beck and call. To one I can say, "Do this," and it is done; and to another, "Do that," and it is done.--For I am the Maker of all things, the Creator of all things, the God of all things. But in this I have limited Myself, for I do not make My children love Me; they have choice. I have the desire that they would love Me, and I long for it, that they would love Me. Thus I find great pleasure in those that love Me, for it fills My need to be loved by My children.

142. Though I have many, many, many friends, those that are very close and dear, those that hold Me dear, that speak to Me, that pour out their hearts to Me, that do My will, that serve Me, and that love Me, I have so few lovers.

143. But these, My children, shall be that sexy Bride that David has spoken of!--For they are ready, they are prepared, they are seeking, and they are wanting a closer connection, a more intimate relationship with Me. I have put it in their hearts to desire this thing, and I am preparing their hearts through the Words that I have spoken through you.

144. Will you marvel at the great blessings that I will pour forth upon your children when they love Me with the love that I wish to be loved with? Marvel not, for when I find those who will love Me in this way, I will rejoice with a great rejoicing and I will pour forth My Love upon them in such abundance! I will give them My seed and they will bring forth fruit. I will give them My blessings, for they will be blessing Me with their love. So I will bless them with My Love, and My Love is so mighty, My Love is so fulfilling, My Love is so bounteous, My Love is so full!

145. Oh, the great joy that they shall have for loving Me! Oh, the great blessings and rewards that they shall have for loving Me! I wish all My children to love this way, but they will not. But the children of David shall love this way, for they are willing to humble themselves. They are already lowly, they are meek and humble in heart; they are not rich and increased with goods. They already show Me great, great love in their obedience, in their hunger for Me, in their hunger for My Word, and in their yieldedness to do that which I have said in My Word. So I greatly honor them and greatly love them, and I know they greatly love Me, so I pour forth My new Love upon them.

146. As they yield to My request for their love, so will I yield to their requests, and so will I answer their prayers, their needs and their desires in an even greater way. For now I test and I purge, and there be many that struggle; but in that day, they shall know that it has been worth the fight, and I will bless them in great abundance for their love for Me, the King Who has everything, but Who seeks to be loved! (End of prophecy.)

Promises of Greater Love and Strength!

169. (Jesus:) For I desire you! I desire to hold you close and to fill you with My seeds!--My seeds of love, My strength, My goodness, My kindness, My loving, My giving, My compassion, My empathy! The things that My Father has given to Me I will give to you, if you can receive it. If you can open wide your heart to Me, I will fill you with My Love to overflowing, and you will revel in it! You will love Me in a way that you have never known before!

170. I will make you a strong Family, the strong soldiers that you wish to be. For there are great battles ahead, and great struggles, and you will need My Love and My strength and that closeness with Me, that unbreakable bond between you and Me. I love you, and this is the reason that I pour My New Wine unto you, because I know that you love Me and you want to be My strong soldiers in these Last Days.

171. Spiritual revelations are shocking, and they have shocked the world since the beginning of time. And only the men of faith, only those that walk by faith have been able to enter in to each new phase, each new stage that I am taking you in this progression into the spirit world.

172. So come, come with Me! Let us come together in Spirit! For I love you, and I need you. I need you to be strong. Have I not said unto you, "Lovest thou Me?--Feed My sheep"? But without Me you can do nothing. And if you wish to be stronger and stronger and stronger spiritually, you must come unto Me and let Me overflow you, overwhelm you, inspire you, and lift you to the Heavens, to heights you have never known before! I will use you even more mightily than you have ever been used!

173. I will lead you into new realms in the Spirit, new depths! You shall plunge into waters that are so fresh and so deep and so full of My revelations and My wisdom and My knowledge and My understanding! But first you must give yourselves to Me, fully, that I may know that your love is so bound with Mine that I can trust you with these deep things of My Spirit.

174. Be not weary in well doing. Lift up your hands and praise Me and trust Me, for I will lead you one step at a time.

175. I love you, My children! Trust Me, as you always have. Trust Me now. Trust your father David as he continues to lead and guide you and be My strong helper. (End of prophecy.)

180. (Maria:) His promises are almost overwhelming, almost incomprehensible! He says He will take us to new realms in the Spirit! He'll plunge us into waters that are fresh and deep and full of His revelations and wisdom and knowledge and understanding! Imagine! He wants to give us all that! He only asks that we give ourselves fully to Him. He knows that He can trust us with these deep things of the Spirit if we are bound together with Him in Love! These promises are conditional, and there is a small requirement that needs to be fulfilled on our part--that is to love Him fully, intimately, completely--but what He wants to give us is so much in comparison with the little that He asks of us in return.

Married to Jesus!

183. (Jesus:) There are many places that we shall go, My Bride and I. For I am as a rich man who can go here and there and not worry about the cost, and who can treat his love, his bride to anything that she needs and wants. I know that My Bride loves Me, and so do I love her, and so will I pour forth My Love in abundance upon her, and so shall she receive of My Love.

184. What do I ask in return? Simply that she love Me and that she obey Me and that she serve Me and that she yield unto Me. In the doing of these things there is great reward, for in the doing of these things you prove your love for Me. I will pour forth My Love upon you in great abundance and in great power, and you shall see My Love manifested in a greater anointing upon My children, and a greater supply of your needs.

185. For if you give love unto Me, and if you remain faithful in your obedience of preaching My Word, so will I pour forth unto you in great supply to fill your great needs.--That your children shall have what they need, and that your young people shall have what they need, and that your older people will have what they need. For you are all My Bride and I will pour forth in great abundance. For you shall no longer be the beggar woman, but you shall be the Queen, for you have bestowed great love unto your King, unto your Husband.

186. Therefore, love Me and honor Me with the praise of your lips, inviting Me to come, and, lo, I will fill you. I will fill you with inspiration. I will fill you with seeds. I will fill you with words. I will fill you with love. I will fill you with supply. I will fill you with renewed strength. (End of prophecy.)

Strong Meat Belongs to Them that Are of Full Age!

192. (Prophecy:) For verily I give unto My children the gifts that they need, that they deserve and that they want, those gifts that help them to grow in their spiritual lives. I give them gifts that they can receive, and I base these gifts on their maturity in Spirit and what I know they will do with them. For unto some I give this holy laughter, and unto others other manifestations of the Spirit, being slain in the Spirit, running and jumping and leaping for joy, tongues and other gifts.

193. But unto you I am giving the greatest gift of all, the gift of love, the gift of love that you can love Me as your Husband, as I desire to be loved. For you will not use this gift as a vain show and only for fun and only for the edification of yourselves, but you will use this gift to bear Me children.

194. And they (the churches) who receive these gifts from Me, they use them, and it edifies their spirit and helps them to feel a touch of the Heavenlies, of things that they can see and feel and touch in the Spirit so that they can have a measure of understanding of the things Above.--Even as I am giving unto you this special gift of love that you too can feel and hear and see things from Above.

195. But the things that I am showing you are the deep things from Above, and these are the gifts that will bring you into a deeper relationship with Me, into a deeper love with Me, and into a deeper understanding of My Truth. For, yea, these are the deep things of God.

196. They are all manifestations of My Spirit, for I give unto all My children those good gifts--gifts that edify them, gifts that make them feel love, gifts that are a tangible proof of My existence, My Love for My children. Yea, these are as children and they play with the toys that I give them and the manifestations of My Love that I pour upon them, and they joy in them and it makes them feel loved by Me.

197. But because your David sought the deeper things and was willing to pour forth by faith the truths that I gave him, and you were willing to put these things into action--the love of God, the FFing, the witnessing, the living together, the loving together, the sacrificial spirit--you have proven to Me over the years your love and your desire for the deeper things. So now I give unto you a new and deeper love for Me.

198. Rejoice and be exceeding glad in the gifts that I have given unto you, in this, My precious gift of love! For it is more than just these small gifts that I have given unto others. For you are My Bride, you are My wife. I do love these others with a sincere and deep love, but they do not know how to return that sincere and deep love unto Me. They do love Me and they are happy in their loving unto Me, and I am happy with their loving, for this is all they know and this is all they can understand.

199. But you understand Me better because of the Words of David and the depth of his Words and the width of his Words and the breadth of his Words. For I have revealed unto My David secrets that I have revealed unto no one else. And they are there, there in My Words, and I will continue to open them up unto you that you can know the deeper things of God. I will fill you with My golden seeds of love. (End of prophecy.)

204. (Maria:) I'm sure that when the Lord told Isaiah to walk around naked or Ezekiel to eat dung sandwiches or Hosea to marry a whore, they all had a few battles about it. We know that Ezekiel did because the Lord first told him to use human dung, but Ezekiel couldn't handle it, so the Lord let him use cow dung instead. (Eze.4:9-15). But in spite of their battles, they obeyed anyway and they fulfilled God's will. I don't suppose that now, in Heaven, they feel too bad about having obeyed and pleased God. I'm sure the Lord greatly honored and rewarded them.

Dropping the Veil!

212. But who will listen? Who will receive this new power? Yea, I say unto you, only the children of David! For there are none other that are open and ready and willing to receive these seeds of life and this Truth! So I reveal it unto you, for I shall give you great strength and great power.

213. As you share this news, some others will listen and understand and will know and will learn and will grow and be strengthened because of it. But they are few, few in number.

214. As the darkness comes, I will empower them too, but not with the great power that I will give unto the children of David for their obedience, but mostly for their love unto Me that they will show, and yea, they have shown. For the children of David have proven themselves faithful and loyal unto Me and willing to sacrifice and to die daily for Me, that I can pour forth upon them in great abundance this great measure of power and love that I have for them, that they may use it greatly in the times to come.

215. So rejoice! Rejoice, I say, rejoice in this wonderful gift that I give unto you! A wonderful gift! A gift that I have given unto you!

216. I am revealing this unto you alone and I am pulling back the veil of My Word on that which was written by My servant David, to give you a greater understanding and a fuller knowledge of what I meant. For the time was not then, but the time is now, for we enter into the dark days, the days coming when there shall be gross darkness upon the people and upon the Earth. But you shall be a gleaming light, a light of love!--A light of strength and power and of My Words. As the darkness grows, the light shall shine brighter, yea, brighter I say!

217. There will be those who will listen unto you that are not of you, and they will have faith and it will draw them closer unto Me. But because of the great obedience of the children of David, and their great love for Me, and their great sacrifice, and their years, yea, years of faithfulness, so will I pour forth upon them in greater measure!--Greater than I have ever poured forth upon this Earth and upon My children in any times past. For now is the time that the power is needed and the strength is needed and the light is needed.

218. And as My children learn to love Me, to draw upon My strength, to put Me first, to call unto Me and to desire Me, so shall I pour forth unto them in great abundance all that they need, for I shall care for them as a king cares for his bride, his queen. I will pour forth great love and great anointing and great provision and great protection, for you shall need all of these things. And you shall know that you are the delight of your King and your Savior and your Husband and your Strength. And for this delight that you bestow upon Me, so shall I delight to give you all the desires of your heart, all the power that you need and all the strength that you seek.

219. I will bestow much, much love upon you for your humility, for your willingness and your yieldedness, for your faith and for your love, for I know that you truly love Me, and I am well pleased in you.

220. So sing a song! Sing a song of love unto Me! Sing a song of rejoicing! Sing a song of praise! And I will sing a song for you, a song of the showers of My blessing. (End of prophecy.)

As the Shepherdess Seeks, the Lord Gives the Answers!

227. (Jesus:) Behold this My faithful shepherdess, My queen, My faithful keeper of the Words!--This My flame, My prophetess, My great and precious lover, My wild and passionate bride! Behold how she seeks after righteousness. Behold how she has been faithful and continues to be faithful in that which is least. As she seeks and as she questions and asks, it is My great joy and pleasure to give her the answers, to fill every need, to satisfy every longing, that she might have peace, that she might have blessed assurance that she leads her children aright.

228. For she is My faithful shepherdess. She overlooks not one detail, and in her great love and her great desire to feed the sheep, she seeks Me at every turn and at every move. This brings Me great joy! For I have promised that she has but to open her mouth and I will fill it; and I will pour forth to this one My Words of Love and My kisses of Love and My caresses of Love, to fill her heart's desire, to give her peace of mind. Then she can say with complete assurance, "This is the way, walk ye in it." For she is My good shepherdess, faithful and wise.

229. She is My true shepherdess and she leads My sheep in a clear path, in a safe path. Therefore, fear not, for I will not lead this one astray and I will not cause her to stumble. For she seeks Me diligently with her whole heart and does not lean to her own understanding and does not make assumptions, but in humility and desperation she calls out to Me. This is a great thing in My eyes, and because of this, I can bestow upon her these precious truths. I can shine a light upon her that the world has never seen before, because of this faithfulness and this desperation, and because I know that she will faithfully pass these Words on to My children.

230. What love I bestow upon this, My queen, for her faithfulness, for her love, for her diligence. What a shepherdess! What a lover! What a wife! What an ardent love relationship we have! How precious she is! How I long to take her into My arms! How I treasure the wonderful, passionate love times that we have together! Oh, how she loves Me and desires Me!

231. This is how I would that all My children would love and desire Me. I would that they too would read My Words and with eagerness would jump to obey, would be happy to obey, would have the same desire and desperation to obey, to please Me, to make Me happy, to fill My need, to show their love, to humble themselves, to reach out to Me, to receive all that I have to give! For, behold, it is a step of faith, yes, but the gift of love that I have to give is so great by comparison! (End of prophecy.)

The Volcano of My Love!

233. (Jesus to Mama:) If you will follow Me hand in hand, footstep by footstep, I will lead you to new heights and new places. I will lead you to new horizons that you have not even dreamed of. For there is so much that I have yet to pour forth unto you and to My children! I will use you as My vessel to pour it forth unto these that seek and hunger, that love Me and want to go where I lead.

234. For you are the shepherdess, you are the one that I have chosen, and I have poured forth unto you My Love in great measure, in greater measure than I have poured before. For these are the End times, and these must know that you love them, so that they will follow you wherever you go. The place that you go will be the place where I lead you, for you will follow Me closely, because you love Me dearly. I will pour forth My Love upon you in great abundance, yea, great abundance! You will be satisfied and happy, for I will fill you to overflowing.

235. You shall rejoice in Me, your Bridegroom! You shall rejoice and rejoice in Me, your Husband! You shall rejoice, for the angels of Heaven will be at your beck and call, and they shall come and do the things that I have said unto them that they should do. A host of Heaven encamps about you and rejoices with you, that you have learned this touch of Heaven, that you have learned to love Me in this way. For this has been a mystery, for so few love Me in this way.

236. But through you, and through your love, and through your words, and through your honesty and openness, many shall love Me in this way. Yea, many, I say many, will love Me in a new way and a greater way and a more fulfilling way. They shall be filled and they, too, shall know the ecstasies of My Love, and the power of My Spirit, and the power that I will pour forth into them through My seeds of Love.

237. They shall shine brightly with My Love and many shall see them, and they shall be beacons in all the land, beacons of My Love in the time of darkness when the world is so dark. Yet My beacons shall be a shining bright light that many shall see. Many shall come unto them, and they shall be enlightened and they shall be filled with the warmth of the light. And they shall put forth their candles unto the light and they too shall be lightened, and they shall go forth with their light.

238. And though their light may not be as strong as the beacons of light, yet it shall lighten the hearts of many, and many shall rejoice! But My beacons shall be deep wells of love, and deep wells of light, and deep wells of encouragement, for they shall be filled with Me because they have loved Me and they have lain in the bed of love and they have been empowered by My seeds.

239. This world shall see a new thing. They shall see the Christians that I have made, the Christians that have the Love of God, the true Love of God, that share My Love and that give My Love unto one another. And by this shall all men know that you are My disciples, if you have love for one another, and if you have love for Me. For how can you love one another unless you love Me above all? For it is My Love that I will pour forth unto you for one another. It is My Love that will cause you to have great communication with one another. For it is Me.

240. It is My Love that will do this thing in this new day, and people shall see it and shall rejoice! They shall see that you are unlearned and ignorant men, but they will know that you love Me. For you shall glow! Your eyes shall be enlightened. Your hands shall hold the Elixir of My Love to heal their broken hearts.

241. And all of this shall spring forth from this one who loves Me. For this is a great thing and a great mystery that I show unto her, how I want My people to love Me. All because she said yes, and all because she laid down in the bed of love and said, "Come, come unto me, my Love! Come unto me, for I want You! I need You and I love You!"

242. From this seemingly small thing, in love for Me, I shall bring forth love in tremendous proportion which shall burst forth abundantly upon the face of the Earth! As a volcano that is just an ugly mountain until it explodes from the heart of the Earth, so shall My Love explode from this one, from these words of Love, these caresses of Love, this lovemaking that she has done with Me. So shall the volcano of My Love explode into all the world! So shall the heat of the volcano and the globs of heat that shall fall everywhere enlighten the land. My children shall rejoice in a new day and rejoice in the love that I have given unto them through My sweet queen, through her love for Me and through My love for her. (End of prophecy.)

Some MLs Quotes on Our Love Relationship with Jesus!

22. "For I, the Lord, have done it, that I may glorify My Name and preserve her whom I love ... My hungry ones who love Me and not My wealth, who cherish My Person, not My palaces, who ravish Myself, and not My power only, and who dwell by My side in nakedness and humility and adoration. ... She which was least among all the daughters of men shall become My beloved and My darling one, My loved one. This is the Bride of Mine affliction. This is the darling of My Tribulation. ... She it is that loveth Me, therefore do I delight in her and do highly honor her" ("A Prophecy of God--on the Old Church and the New Church," ML #A:11,14,24-25).

23. "I look not on the outward appearance, but upon the heart, and she loves Me with all her heart. Therefore, she pleases Me greatly. ... Come with Me, therefore, My fair one, and let Me be ravished with thy love!" ("More Prophecies on Old and New Church," ML #117:1,10).

25. "He has raised us up His New Church, a young Bride bursting with energy and a passionate love for her Bridegroom!--An alive, vibrant, warm, living, beautiful body that responds quickly, fervently and ardently to His slightest touch, and who is wildly ravished with His Love!" ("Lovemaking with Jesus!" ML #1525:20).

26. "My Bride shall enter into My chamber, and I Myself will lie with her and honor her before all the handmaidens" ("Prophecies of the Handmaiden of the Lord!" ML #19:17).

27. "This is why God has in these Last Days raised up our Family, His sexy New Church!--A young new Bride bursting with energy and a passionate love for her Bridegroom! He wants a Bride that He can love with His Spirit and His Word, His seed and His Love, to make her productive and fruitful, to bear everlasting children for the eternal Kingdom of God! `For herein is My Father glorified,' Jesus said, `that you bear much fruit!' (Jn.15:8).

28. "To be the kind of Bride He wants, you've got to first of all have enough faith in His Love to obey, and come and strip off all of the outer garments of appearances, cover-ups and false fronts, and expose yourself to the Lord, totally yielding yourself to Him in submission and humility. You must be willing to be stripped bare before Him. You're just you, and that's what He wants!--You!--All of you!

29. "So you've got to drop everything, forsake all, come to Him and be willing to be stripped bare, abandon all false cover-ups, and just expose yourself to Him. And then you've got to let Him make love to you and fill you with His Spirit and His seed, the Word of God, which, when conceived in responsive hearts, brings forth fruit, newborn babes into the Kingdom of God! Hallelujah!" ("Submit Yourself to God--Yield and Obey, Part 1," ML #2224:16-18).

161. We thank You, Lord, above all for our wonderful spiritual union with You, becoming Your Bride in the Spirit (Mop 118:39).

162. God actually needs you and wants you and is in love with you, His Bride! (Mop 77:35).

163. I'm the Bride of Christ! Whose bride are you? I don't want anybody but Jesus! Amen? (ML #20:25).

164. What do we have to do to bear fruit? We have to stay very close to the Shepherd, and like a wife to a husband, receive His seed so that we can conceive and bear children in the Lord. We need to mate with the Seed-giver and be a good wife and a good mother and bear fruit, bear children for the Lord (ML #1316:59).

165. For I look not upon outward trappings, but I look upon the heart. For there is your communion with Me. This is what I desire, the union of heart with heart, that your heart and My heart might be one, that we may be joined together as husband and wife (ML #2700:21).

166. I wanna get loved up with Jesus! I wanna be a bride! Let's fall in love with Jesus! (ML #20:22).

167. Most of all, we're happy with Jesus and His Love!--And you're His Bride and He's been loving you with His Spirit and His Word and His seed and His Love to make you productive and fruitful and to bear Him children for the Kingdom of God!--Amen? Hallelujah! TYJ! Praise God! (ML #1950:5).

Some Bible verses on Jesus our Bridegroom, and we His Bride

Psalm 45:11 - So shall the King greatly desire thy beauty: for He is thy Lord; and worship thou Him.

Isaiah 54:5 - For thy Maker is thine husband; the Lord of hosts is His name; and thy Redeemer the Holy One of Israel; The God of the whole Earth shall He be called.

Isaiah 62:3-5 - Thou shalt also be a crown of glory in the hand of the Lord, and a royal diadem in the hand of thy God. Thou shalt no more be termed Forsaken ... for the Lord delighteth in thee, ... and as the bridegroom rejoiceth over the bride, so shall thy God rejoice over thee.

Hosea 2:19,20 - And I will betroth thee unto Me for ever; yea, I will betroth thee unto Me in righteousness, and in judgment, and in lovingkindness, and in mercies. I will even betroth thee unto Me in faithfulness: and thou shalt know the Lord.

Romans 7:4 - Wherefore, my brethren, ye also are become dead to the law by the body of Christ; that ye should be married to another, even to Him Who is raised from the dead, that we should bring forth fruit unto God.

2 Corinthians 11:2 - I am jealous over you with godly jealousy: for I have espoused you to one Husband, that I may present you as a chaste virgin to Christ.

Revelation 19:7-9 - Let us be glad and rejoice, and give honor to Him: for the Marriage of the Lamb is come, and His wife hath made herself ready. And to her was granted that she should be arrayed in fine linen, clean and white: for the fine linen is the righteousness of saints. And he saith unto me, Write, Blessed are they which are called unto the Marriage Supper of the Lamb. And he saith unto me, These are the true sayings of God.
