The following series of graphical timelines are intended to present a total view of all the prophecies that have been revealed to Daniel in Daniel 11.

Under Persian rule

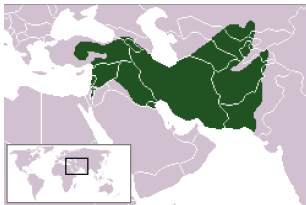

The first of these timelines summarizes the rulers of the Persian empire. To the left side in the graphic is the verse in Daniel 11 that is referenced. The horizontal triangle points to the name of the Persian ruler who fulfilled that verse. Each Persian ruler is in a light green box. Other information is included further to the right, including the dates that king ruled, and any relevant notes as regards to what has been revealed in the book of Daniel. At the bottom of this graphic is the reference to the transition from the Persian empire to the Grecian empire. Those rulers are in light blue boxes.

Timeline of the Persian Rulers, Daniel Chapter 11

During the next two centuries following the death of Alexander the Great, his kingdom was split into four warring fractions. The following table is the similar format as the one above, with the verse referenced to the left, and the remaining part of the table divided into four columns for each kingdom. Daniel 11:4-35 gives a prophetic list of events focusing mostly on two kingdoms; the northern kingdom under the rule of the Seleucid rulers, and the southern kingdom under the rule of the Ptolemaic rulers. This is also reflected in the following table, where the kings are named for each kingdom, and their interaction in the verse is cited to the left in each row. The arrows reflect the influence of one person upon another. For example, in the row describing Daniel 11:6, Ptolemy II Philadelphus gave his daughter Bernice for marriage to Antiochus II Theos to form an alliance with him. Though names are not given in these series of prophecies but rather events are specified, it is clear from the historical record that these names and places exactly fulfill the prophecies written by Daniel.

These passages of Daniel are exciting to compare against the historical record. To actually map the historical record over these verses, or read or hear the account that others have studied, is truly remarkable. Many have done so, such as Dr. Hocking, J Vernon McGee, or John F. Walvoord (none of whom were asked to endorse this site). Dr. Hocking had a particularly detailed presentation which is available on his site in his archived broadcasts, on 18 and 19 January 2000. On this broadcast he gave a verse by verse comparison with the historical account with this section. Since so many other great works already exist on this, these passages are only summarized below, but the reader is encouraged to check out the literal fulfillment of these passages as recorded by these references and others.

(Note from the editors) We are to expect then, as the complete fulfillment of verses 21 – 45 is being done by the coming Antichrist, that this character will very likely come out of this region of the Seleucide Empire
