

THE WORDS OF DAVID VS. THE WORDS OF THEOLOGIANS

The Words of David versus The Theologians, and Other Christians

Book 1, Compilation #6 of TCOB pubs on the subject, by theaudiokey.com team - April 2018

The children of David are true believers and they remain followers of My voice, which beckons and calls them supernaturally. They desire to follow My voice and My leading no matter what the cost, no matter where I lead, rather than adhere to the restrictions of the System. They yearn for My Spirit and long for My Words! They always look upward and tune in to My Spirit and My voice, which feeds and strengthens them.

They shun the ways of the world and worldly knowledge. They walk not with those who are puffed up with their own intellect, and those who spout off their own carnal reasoning. They eschew it, for they know where it leads--that it is the way of death, the way of bondage to System ideas. The children of David have rebelled against the hypocrisy of the System and its organized religion, and have chosen to follow their shepherd and to follow My voice. And so must each one continue to choose. (1)

(Jesus speaking:) For those of you who have faith in My Word but still find yourself drawn to or very impressed with the words of man, I'll explain why this is: Sometimes you mistakenly think that the reason this stood out to you more was because it was explained better, because it was written by someone more educated than the channel who received a message from Me. The truth is, though, that because you're My children, My sheep, you're very spiritual and very deep. When you see that someone else has discovered something similar to what I've said and stated, you rejoice within the deep chambers of your heart, because it's proof of the faith you already have.

Others of you, unfortunately, lack the faith that you should have in My Word... Its power and brilliance has faded in your eyes because you haven't kept it polished and bright. Therefore some of you hold on to the truths you read in articles or books or publications by others outside My Family, who speak in their own words, and value them more highly than My pure Words.

The writings of worldly men are as supplements, confirmations, or simply practical knowledge from the wise and educated to fill a need. Like your Father David would say, "Use it!" If you have a broken bone, get it set by a trained doctor. If you need some information about certain equipment or a certain part of the world where you're considering going, by all means look it up and avail yourself of the information that has been provided by those who have already researched it.

But when it comes to matters of the spirit--questions of doctrine, the mysterious or mystical, the revelatory, the prophetic, the Biblical, even the emotional and the psychological, you must beware of listening to or placing too much emphasis on the words of man. Even if they speak truth, the danger in drinking in too much is that then you begin to feel that you don't need Me or My Word. You begin to think, "There are others who have truth, who have wisdom, and theirs sometimes seems even more relatable and practical than the Lord's voice in prophecy." You begin to turn your heart and ears away from Me, and thus you start walking down a dangerous path, one that leads you far astray from the center of My will and My blessings. (2)

(David:) Churchy waters can sometimes reform and patch up, mend, heal, soothe, and comfort to a certain extent, and for other Christians they might be okay. But they'll never challenge you as a dropped-out disciple, they'll never strengthen you as a revolutionary child of David! In fact -and I guarantee you this- they'll weaken you in this way and cause you to compromise.

Remember what the Lord gave on music a few years back, the "three wells" prophecy? Well, the same spiritual principles apply to what you read. In reading other Christian books and writings you're risking venturing into brackish waters-you might find some good and helpful counsel in them, but they are not the purest waters of the Spirit which God has given us, and unless the waters have been tested, you might be wading through a fair amount of contamination and putting your spiritual health in jeopardy.

This is precisely why the Enemy wants you to wade around in these waters indiscriminately and frequently-he wants to pollute your spirit. He'll encourage you with, "After all, they're Christians! Look at all this helpful counsel and input, and look at how it's helped you!" He doesn't just want you to wade in them, he wants you to swim in them and to tell others about these waters, to advertise these waters as being pure, strengthening, even more helpful than the purest of all crystal streams-the New Wine!

He hates the pure water of the New Wine! He hates it with a passion, because he knows it alone contains every spiritual element crucial to his downfall and the pulling down of spiritual strongholds! It is fueling, feeding, strengthening and creating the Endtime army of the future! And if he can't get you as a Christian to give up your faith entirely, the next best thing is to get you to settle for and swim around in the second best-the waters of other Christian writings and material.

These brackish waters aren't so much of a threat to the Devil and his kingdom. That's why the Devil isn't so afraid of these other Christians. Sure, some are winning souls and helping people come to grips with their problems, become more aware of the spiritual warfare, and even helping them progress in their basic spiritual growth. But none of those waters preach revolution! None of those waters preach the new weapons. None of those waters preach prophecy and hearing from the Lord like we do. None of those waters preach the keys of the Kingdom and supply you with the great and mighty weaponry of the spirit! None of those waters preach getting in touch with your spirit helpers and the spirit world, because they haven't got it! We alone have these waters-the purest crystal stream from Heaven itself!

The Enemy would like nothing more than to get you to gaze over the fence at the grass on the other side, so he can whisper in your ear and tell you it's greener, more appetizing, appealing, and even more strengthening than what God has given you. He'd love to pull the wool over your eyes if he could, and cause you to trade in your birthright for a mess of pottage-like Esau! Watch out for his traps!

Why would you even want to wade around in these other waters? You'd be better off spending more time on what God has shown you to do-strengthening yourselves in the volume and wealth of Word He's given you, not to mention strengthening yourselves in the spiritual weaponry He's given you, exercising and honing and developing the use of the keys which He's given you full access to! You should be down on your knees thanking God for what He's given the Family-gifts and blessings and awesome weaponry far above any other Christians on the face of the Earth! Think about it!

As your spiritual shepherds, we watch for your souls-we're responsible for you as our flock-and we're certainly not going to advocate that you read a lot of other material which we know will be a detriment to you, weakening your love for the Word, the New Wine, and your place in this Endtime army! We love and need you too much to sit idly by and say nothing while watching you wade around in these dangerous waters!

You see, if we're not daily walking the walk of a revolutionary, dropped-out disciple, then we're going to head back into the church system. And if you are daily-or even frequently-wading in the waters of other Christians' writings and books, then you are going to drift away from your high calling in the Family.

You, as a child of David, have the opportunity before you to choose to be strengthened and grow in the words of David, the new weapons and the use of the keys the Lord has given us.-Or you face the threat of compromise, and it may well come through this seemingly harmless, even "beneficial" avenue of reading other Christian books.

Remember that the whole spirit of the "Conviction vs. Compromise" series was the Lord's call for the Family to get back to full-time dedication and discipleship-to the lifestyle that makes the Family different from other Christians. Even building a greater church isn't the all in all if you're discarding or burying the unique and important New Wine that you are blessed to have received. Why would God have raised up me, and Maria, if all that was needed were the same messages the churches and other Christian writers give?

Of course, the choice is up to you. You are the one who ultimately decides what you read and what you don't read. There's nothing we can do about that. But it is our job to warn you of the dangers, so that you can be on guard and really ask the Lord about what you read, how much, and how often.

The bottom line, folks, is that you are a very different and unique breed of Christians! You're being trained for a very special and specific purpose, which no other Christians in the world are being trained for. For your mission and task you need stronger meat; you need the undiluted, pure truth, and that comes from the New Wine. That's the only thing that will truly increase and strengthen your faith!

(Jesus:) You are children of David, and while other Christians have served Me in other ways, your calling and heritage is to be dropped out, radical. You're not mainstream and never will be. Reading churchy doctrines by System Christians subtly undermines the radical truth that is your heritage. Give no place to the lukewarm compromise that seeks to ensnare you and tempts you to trade the best for something that is barely good. (4)

Be not as the scholars and theologians who do spend years and years in training, who read the Word only to stuff their heads, but they do not have practice in using My Word, in stepping out on My Word, in putting it to the test and expecting it to work. For these are they who debate over My Words, theorizing, analyzing, supposing, and deposing. These are they who only read and study, but they fail to put My Word to the test.

These do not appropriate faith in My Word. They do not wield My Word accurately. Therefore, for lack of use, for lack of turning on the Word, they are not able to partake of the light and warmth of My Word, so that the power grows dim and weak. They are limited in their use of My Word for lack of real-life experience in putting it to the test. (5)

So let Me be your guide, let Me determine your doctrines, your theology, your philosophy, the tenets of your faith. (6)
