

The Miraculous Resurrection of the Children of David!

The Miraculous Resurrection of the Children of David

(Jesus speaking:) The only thing that will bring order out of chaos, victory from this defeat, and cause this dying Phoenix to rise again from the ashes of defeat, is Me and My Word. (1)

(Channel:) Hallelujah! I saw a picture of dry bones in the desert being given life again--people being brought back to life and rising up out of the dust where they had been lying. The Lord was raising up an army from people who had been discouraged and downcast. He was taking the dry bones and restoring flesh to them and causing them to rise up out of their slumber.

(Jesus continues:) I have called forth the armies of David, and I have called you from your defeats into victory. I have raised you up again, you who have been struggling, despondent and discouraged. I have ignited the flame again! How encouraged I am to see you all answer the call of My Spirit in your hearts! I see many rising to fight again, and some who have been called to fight for the first time.

I see young and old rising together to face the light as you begin to march in ranks toward Me. I see you rising up out of your complacency, compromise, disobedience, unyieldedness, jealousy, pride and bitterness. I see you all rising to meet the call of David, the cry of revolution! It's a Revolution!

(Channel:) Here I see countless people in ranks marching forward raise their hands and shout, "For Jesus!"

(Jesus continues:) And again I say, "It's a Revolution!"

(Channel:) The armies shout again, "For Jesus!" Jesus continues to shout and the armies answer, till more and more are being raised out of the ground. I see some reaching out and pulling people out of the rocks and out of the fields. They are calling up the "dead" in that they are helping pull up some who were buried under the things of this world. They have been buried, and now they are being called out of the dust. Each hand reaching out of the ranks is met by another in the dust, and the army keeps growing and shining brighter and brighter.

Jesus shouts, and I hear the sound of His voice rumble like a deep and powerful thunder--not the voice of a human but a voice of power, the voice of God! The hills shake and the ground quivers at His voice!

(Jesus continues:) Come out from among them and be ye separate!

(Channel:) The ground crumbles and the rocks start to fall, and out come more and more Family members who had been buried under heavier objects. For some, the weight of what they are buried under has to be removed by the Lord's powerful voice. They stand up and start running to join the army, which is now more than a hundred people wide, and I have no idea how long. Huge ranks are marching and the sound is earthshaking.

Again Jesus cries, "Revolution!" And the army answers, "For Jesus!" Then the army begins to shout over and over again as if it's their battle chant: "Revolution, revolution, revolution!"--Incessant chants, getting faster and faster, and I see the soldiers grow taller and stronger and brighter with each moment. They begin to march faster, then begin to jog, and now I see them break into a run.

In front of them there is an army of dark figures who are nervously holding their ranks. This dark army is like a cloud of darkness spreading for miles in the distance. It moves back and forth like a sea, and the words that come to me are "the sea of darkness." I get the impression that this is a huge army of the Enemy which he has placed as an obstacle between us and the lost. It's like he is hoping this will hold us off. But the moment each Family member comes in contact with this cloud or this "sea of darkness," the darkness is rolled back. It's strange that sometimes it looks like a cloud and other times I see evil demons in a line. It keeps flashing back and forth. Jesus, what is the significance of this?

(Jesus speaking:) What you see before you is a cloud of evil that would seem to have great power to oppose you, but in truth its power is but an illusion. For some it seems that they are up against the most powerful forces of Satan, but to others it is nothing more than a dark fog. This is because some people just cannot see what the Enemy's face looks like and they are not 100 percent sure what they are fighting, but they keep running in faith. As they get closer, they see what they are up against and they realize that I have given them the power to overcome the attacks of the Devil. They see that the demons they face are like clouds, which are quickly blown away before the might and power that I have given them!

(Channel:) I now see this army charging through this darkness, plowing through it. But they're not swinging swords or any sort of weapon. They just run and the darkness dissipates before them. Why is it like this?

(Jesus speaking:) The reason they do not wield weapons which you can see is because they don't need to. They have enough power within them from My hand that they become like weapons themselves; they are My weapons.

(Channel:) Wow, now the scene zooms way, way out, and I see that this army running is a sword in the Lord's hand, and the cloud of darkness is the Devil who is running away! The Lord is using us as His weapon to defeat the Devil, and the Devil is running away. Every once in a while he turns around and tries to fight, but Jesus just keeps whacking him with this sword and cutting away at him. It's so powerful. Jesus has an intensely furious face as He's attacking, and He's wild with the wrath of God. He's using us as His weapon, and the Devil can't stand up to it! He's empowered us and He's chasing the Devil, hacking at him and trampling his minions under foot.

(Jesus speaking:) Now do you understand? Now do you see why I have called you to such dedication? You are My sword. You are My weapon against evil, and as long as you were dormant I could not fight to My full capacity. But now that you have awakened and come alive again, you have become a powerful tool in My hand which the Devil cannot stand against. There is no wile that you cannot overcome with this power. I have taken up My most powerful weapon, and you are part of it. Released to Me was the power to awaken your souls and to restore the power to My sword.

(Channel:) I saw angels marching along with us, like they were a part of the same army. The only way I could tell the difference was they were dressed in different clothing. But other than that we all looked the same, and we were all part of this great drive against the Devil.

(Jesus continues:) Indeed, all of Heaven is fighting on your behalf! Joined to your ranks are the greatest warriors of My Heavenly Kingdom, who have fought many battles and won many victories. Beside you and fighting with you are the greatest warriors of the faith, who strengthen you and cheer you on, while at the same time they lend their swords to fight by your side.

You are My army for this hour. You are My sharp threshing instrument, which I will now call My "Sharp Thrashing Instrument," for you are going to give the Devil a thrashing by My hand! You will wake up the slumbering world and rock the nations with My power!

How great a day this is, for it is the day when My power has been restored and My warriors march forth to great victory! Sound the victory, for Satan is in retreat! Sound the call to celebrate, for the armies of Heaven will be triumphant, and none shall stand against you and live. This is the day of victory!

(Channel:) I heard the halls of Heaven break out in praises, tongues, thanksgiving, a thunderous joyful noise! It reminded me of New Year's when the clock strikes 12; you hear that sort of commotion or see it on TV, only this was many, many times louder! I saw streamers and confetti raining down from the tiers of Heavenly mansions as each person came out to shout and praise at the victories won this day.

(Jesus continues:) Arise now, children of David, for the hour of march has come! (End of message from Jesus.) (2)

From the Death of the Old Will Spring Forth the New

(Jesus speaking:) Where there is life, there is always hope. I know you look around you and you see no life--only death and the burning embers and ashes of what once was. How can life spring forth from so great a destruction, so great a burning? But this is where you must hope, for even in this great burning I extend to you the hand of hope.

All you can feel right now is the stinging and the burning in your eyes from the smoke and stench of your sins. It is a very great burning and great clearing away of your sins and disobediences, but even from these ashes will come not just new growth and renewal, but great victory. There will arise a beauty from even these ashes of defeat. You'll be tempted to feel that no growth can come from these ashes, that just from the sheer weight and depth of the ashes alone no life could possibly spring forth, that there is no hope of resurrection from so great a sin and burning. But I promise you that even from these ashes will come victory, and even this burning is for a greater purpose.

A once great and vast forest has been burned to the ground. Great, majestic tall trees, which have long stood in strength and magnificence, have been reduced to ashes and charred remains. But even when a great and aged forest is ravaged by fire, there is always regrowth, and new life will always spring forth--albeit slow at first.

So will this burning and regrowth be with this great forest. It will be reduced to ashes, and the devastation will seem overwhelming at first, as all you can see is destruction and the smoke of her burning rising high into the air for all to see. But it is only from the death of the old that the new can spring forth. It must be a complete death, a complete burning for My perfect purpose to be established and fulfilled. For I can allow only new life to spring forth--young and alive saplings who are little in their own sight, those who hungrily desire the light and reach forth toward it constantly, that they may grow the right way in true strength of spirit, always facing the light and focusing on the light.

When the old is burned and gone, when the once tall, proud trees are no longer there overshadowing what lies below, then the new growth has a clear view to the light. Nothing is blocking their vision; nothing is holding them back, for all that once was is gone. All that remains is the light above, and they have but to turn their faces toward that light and growth shall come quickly.

So shall I set about building and creating a new forest, a new work, and so shall I raise up the new saplings and those who are worthy to be called My disciples and who will love Me and desire Me and My Words and My light above all. So shall these little ones grow and flourish and prosper and be found faithful, with the fertile ground of My Word alone underneath them. Gone will be everything outside the surety of My Word, and from this stripping will I reactivate My (new) Bride to be all that she is destined to be and bring forth all the fruit she is destined to bear.

So shall My promises and My Word be fulfilled, and so shall this cause a mighty stirring and a mighty widening of the eyes of all My children. So shall a great hush and respect and reverence for My Word fall on all My children worldwide--where a healthy respect and fear of Me and My Word has fallen by the wayside. This shall cause a mighty turning and repentance in the hearts of many, and get them back to the basics of Me and My Word. And so shall a beautiful new forest be created from the ashes of the old.

So grab ahold of that hope, because that hope is firmly grounded on the fact that I have a greater purpose in this--an end purpose. Though it is now out of sight, it is nevertheless there on the horizon and will show its glorious face if My wayward children will turn to Me and seek hard after Me.

So, My loves, take heart. You are still My loves and My brides. Yet the promise remains that whom I love I chasten, and every son and daughter whom I receive, I scourge. So this is all My love for you, and this chastening is all for a purpose. And I promise you that this purpose will be accomplished if great repentance is found in your hearts and spirits, and if you stay on the path of repentant obedience. (End of message from Jesus.)

A Discipleship Challenge

(Jesus speaking:) Listen, and you'll hear the mighty rustlings of My great tree, as I purge it to bring forth more fruit. Listen, and you'll hear the footsteps of a mighty army that I'm preparing for the future--not mighty in numbers, but mighty and strong in truth and in the power of My Spirit. I'm raising up a new church, My children, from within your very midst.

The old structure... will no longer stand! I will completely destroy it and build in its place a new creation! I will gather together you who will be My revolutionaries, who will walk through the gates of total commitment and dependence on Me, into the future where I will use you to reach the world, to shine brightly before all the Earth, to wield the keys as swords of destruction against the Enemy in the Last Days.

This new church will be a structure built on the solid foundation of My truth and My Word, and you who wish to be part of it must choose My ways and My Words. For if the new church is built with the remnants of the old, the ideologies of man, personal desires, pride, or the ways of this world, it will crumble. It must be redesigned, a completely new creation, with everything from the past, except My Word and truth, abolished and destroyed.

I'm calling to you, My children, to be part of the glorious future, to be part of the small but powerful army that will sweep the world and rock the nations, to be part of My new army that will win battles you've never dreamed of winning, to be part of an unconventional church that all the world will marvel at, saying, "These are the children of Heaven! They hold great and terrible power in their hands, and treasure priceless truths in their hearts."

I'm calling you to be part of My new nation, My beautiful city of purity that will be set upon My hill, whose light will never be hid or destroyed--because the light is Me, the light is My power, the light is My truth. I'm calling you who are willing to be despised by the world in order to be honored in My sight, you who are willing to choose the life of a revolutionary disciple, an iconoclast, a to-hell-with-the-System dropout. I'm calling you who only want My truth, My ways, My Word, My light, and My approval.

I'm calling you who love the world of eternity more than this present Earth that will one day be turned into a ball of raging fire when all the remnants of Satan's power will be destroyed. I'm calling those of you who want My flame of truth that separates you from the world to burn brightly in your hearts, and who are willing to nurture that flame, no matter what the cost or personal loss. I'm calling you to forsake your pride, independence, bitterness, worldliness, and the sins of this world, in order to embrace the jewels of My Spirit that are not dead but alive and living, and will shine and pulsate in you more brightly and brilliantly as we draw closer to the End.

I cannot use the proud--the great shiny knights who feel strong in themselves, who ride along on their high horses, trying to do battle for Me, attempting to win wars for Me, and struggling to be a part of My army, but doing it all in their own strength. They will fail. They will fail. They will not ride through to victory--not because they don't want to serve Me, but because they don't want it badly enough. They don't want to pay the full price. They don't want to forsake the things that are holding them back. They feel their own armor, their own weapons, and their own ways of doing things are enough, and that their tactics for battle will see them through. But they will fail. No tactics but Mine are sufficient.

I'm calling for a simple army--an army that to you will appear humble and meek, even bedraggled, grungy and weak, because then you will use the new weapons, not the tactics of your own strength. I need an army who will depend on My power, derive strength from My truth, and though small and weak in your own eyes and in the eyes of men, you will be mighty conquerors and valiant warriors in spirit.

I'm calling you, My children, to enlist in the most unpopular outfit you will ever see on this Earth, but the most popular and highly honored outfit according to the standards of Heaven--an army that you will be proud for all of eternity that you were a part of. The old church, the old army, the old Family will be no more. But in its place will be a new church, a new army, a new Family that will be rebuilt from scratch with the building blocks of My truth and the radical Words of My Spirit that will set it apart from the world more than ever before, but that will also draw unto Me all of My lost and hungry children in the world who are seeking answers, who hate the System and its ways, and whose hearts are dying for true revolution.

The church I am building today is the body of believers that will reap the great and final harvest--you who will walk through the Tribulation as My leaders and miracle workers, you who will be the greatest threat to the Enemy and his plan, the most dangerous to his agenda, the ones at the very top of his "hit list," because he will fear you so much. But he will not be able to touch or stop My anointed ones, My true church, My radical disciples--you who will have My truth running through your veins and pouring out like a gushing stream to all who come into your presence.

Be not as those who loved this present world more than the living Words from My lips, the radical truth that has been all but lost in the world today, but which I pour directly and freely into you who give Me your all. It's you who are hungry babes in spirit that I need in My army. It's the you-can-take-this-whole-world-but-give-me-nothing-but-Jesus disciples that I need in My ranks. It's you who don't give a second thought to the world and its ways, but devote all your time and energy to reading, studying, absorbing, and living My truth that will have what it takes.

It's those of you who are proud of being different, even odd and strange in the eyes of the world, because you care more about what I think than your reputation--you are the ones I need as My disciples. It's those of you who have crazy faith, the Don Quixotes like Noah, Abraham, Moses, Daniel, Joshua, John Paul Jones, Dad... who are going to be the backbone of My new church. You who are willing to be beggars for God, fools for Christ, and unconventional soldiers--you're the ones who are going to win this war!

You don't have to be strong, charismatic, intellectual, powerful, or wise to be part of My new army, a part of My new church, a part of My called-out ones! You've just got to be weak so I can be strong in you; dumb in your own wisdom so I can give you Mine; small in your own eyes so I can exalt you; lacking in knowledge so that you live and breathe My Words of life and truth; humble so that I can use you; simple so that you'll accept My Words in faith; afraid to make a move without My approval, so that I can reveal My plans that will propel you forward with the power that only comes from obedience to Me.

Give Me your whole heart, your whole life, your everything, and in return you will be floored by what I will do for you. You'll never have imagined that a life lived in complete, 100%, revolutionary discipleship to Me could be so good, so fulfilling, so rewarding, so complete!

I'm asking you to deny yourself, to take up this cross of challenge that looks like a heavy, cumbersome, old wooden cross of little worth. But as you humble yourself beneath it and use all your strength to rise up to carry your cross for Me, along with your brothers and sisters who choose the same, it will be transformed into a brilliant and powerful sword, representing My power, truth, Word, anointing, and the keys of the Kingdom in these Last Days.

What you at first thought was a burden will be transformed into a weapon that will not only defeat the Enemy, but bring you great personal joy and fulfillment, free the captives that are ensnared, and cut through the brazen gates and daunting obstacles that stand in the way of progress--your personal progress, as well as the progress that will bring about My Kingdom on Earth.

Take the plunge! Accept the challenge! Choose to die to yourself and your own ideas and plans once and for all! Forsake the things that hold you back so that I can create in you a clean heart that will beat with My power. Wipe the slate of your life clean! Sign the blank sheet of your life and give it to Me. Burn the old and make way for the new--the beautiful, glorious, wonderful new--so that you can be a part of My Endtime ecclesia, My called-out ones, My constellation of stars that will shine brightly to pierce the eyes of the Evil One during his reign on Earth, and then be raised to shine as ensamples to all of Heaven forevermore. I challenge you now to full and unflinching discipleship. Give Me your all! Allow Me to make you into the all-out disciples that I can use to create My new living church--the radical new-bottle church of the Time of the End!
