The Everlasting Reward of the Children of David

Part. 2

Book 1, Compilation #23 of TCOB pubs on the subject, by theaudiokey.com team - April 2018

(Jesus speaking:) Before I left Earth to return to My Father, I told My disciples and the many believers who would follow, "I go to prepare a place for you, that where I am, there you may be also." And now, My dear children of David, I want to tell you the good news--that at long last, My mission is nearly complete! Yes, just a while longer and we'll all be joined together for eternity. I tell you this to encourage your hearts, for it won't be long now! I tell you this that you might keep your eyes looking upward to Heaven, that you might live in the Heavenly vision--for it is near!

At this very moment, I Myself am personally tending to every detail of the final preparations of your arrival and return Home, adding final touches to your mansions and your rewards. I'm adding touches of splendor and glory and brilliance where needed, strokes of extra luster, a wee more dazzle and glory and shine--for you, My faithful ones, who are deserving for your jobs well done.

As I finish up your Heavenly abodes, as I walk down the avenues of Heaven, checking that everything is in order and ready to receive you, the anticipation mounts within My heart! All who have gone before you in the Heavens eagerly await your arrival. Just to think of this glorious moment makes My heart beat with an excitement unmatched by any other. I scarce can contain the joy I have bursting inside at the very thought of your arrival! Oh, the thrill in knowing it's only a short while longer till that magic moment when you'll all be Home at last!

Therefore look up, dear ones, for the time is near when we will be reunited in our Heavenly Home! And oh, what a day that will be! How My love for you thrives! Therefore, draw on this love so that it may carry you through the days ahead, even as I, when I walked on the Earth, also learned to draw on My Father's love and it carried Me through. It carried Me back Home to Heaven. My love will do the same for you, as you depend on Me to carry you through.

Now, My loves, as I'm putting the final touches on your Heavenly abodes, making ready to receive you Home, you too must continue your preparations. Make them sure, make them steady, and make yourselves ready for that glorious day, as you prepare yourselves for the final hour.

This is your commission now: Prepare yourselves, for the night is falling. And remember, I am near. Open your eyes and look upon the signs and know that the time is fast approaching; it is even now at the doors. World conditions are worsening at breakneck speed and there is no turning from the course which they have set themselves upon.

Now is the time, My brave children of David. This is the eve of the great day of miracles! Though the night falls upon the face of the Earth, these are the days when you will shine; therefore, prepare! This is the eve of the days of great signs and wonders that I will do on your behalf. Therefore, be glad and let this encourage your hearts, for I am here to see you through.

Mark your days and use them wisely. Prepare by continuing to read, absorb, and drink in all that I have rained down upon you. Prepare yourselves by hearkening to My voice, by receiving My Words in the intimacy of our bedchamber. Let them be your guiding light. Continue to move forward, ever forward, onward and upward. For as you fix your eyes on Heaven, Heaven will shine down upon your faces, and this will give you strength.

Be encouraged, for the time is near when I will descend from above with a mighty shout! Every eye will see, and every ear will hear as I rock the Earth in that day of great and final victory, final triumph, final overcoming, as we are joined once again, never more to part.

It won't be long now, My loves! The day that I have long awaited draws near, and your glory will shine from the ends of Earth and throughout the Heavens. You will shine with the glory of endurance and yieldedness. You will shine with the glory of victory. You will shine as soldiers returning from a battle victorious. You will glow with the light of victory, for in Me you will have overcome! Yes, you will shine! Not with your own light, but because of your yieldedness! You, My brave and valiant ones, will be highly honored before all nations, because you held on, as I held on. Therefore be encouraged and prepare to march on strong! (End of message from Jesus.) (1)

(Jesus:) The honor and rewards of Heaven given to My brides who serve Me with their whole lives, hearts and spirits while on Earth are beyond description. All of those in Heaven who witness the arrival of one of My faithful servants, one of My children of David, know that that child of David is honored by Me in a very special way; there is no denying it.

There is great respect and honor given to those who come through the gates of Heaven after having served Me long and well while on Earth, so much so that you will feel shocked and humbled by it--not in an embarrassed sort of way, but you will be in a state of awe, and speechless because of what you will see and feel and know at that very moment. (2)

You have the quality of simplicity and lowliness through accepting My will for your life. Although you are not great men and women in the eyes of the world--in the eyes of Heaven, in the eyes of all the angels, you are each fathers of faith, mothers of faith--the greats of both Heaven and Earth and of all time! Because of your meekness and your lowliness in your own eyes, I will raise you up in My hands and make you great! The world will never forget you, and I will allow records to be kept as a remembrance for all times, for all generations, for all worlds and nations--and eternity will speak of your names, My beautiful brides of the children of David!

My loves, to sum it up, you are who I need, what I need, and I plan to use you to the full. Each of you will go down in Heaven's hall of fame for the part you played as children of David in these final days of the world. You have stood up against great evil--and will do so even more. You have resisted the world's temptations and have not fallen for Satan's most cunning tricks. If you have at all, at least you haven't for long, because you're back on the wall and standing strong. You have been willing to be humble in the eyes of the world in order to rejoice and reign with Me for all eternity. How great is your reward, the children of David! How great is your reward! (3)

The Hall of Warriors

The Hall of Warriors is a very real thing in the Heavens. I say "Heavens" because this hall exists in each Heaven. "Heavens" in this case refers to dimensions of the spirit world. The Earth is a dimension and the "Hall of Warriors" exists in the earthly dimension just as it does in every spiritual dimension.

It is a hall that spans all dimensions. Although you may not see it with your eyes, you each have a place in this hall. It is your privilege and honor because you are My warriors of the faith. You have fought well and are charged with this calling. You are warriors before Me.

On this Earth the Hall of Warriors is sparsely populated because so few are willing to be fighters for My name. You of the Family are in it, as are some other Christians. But they are few, because so many are not willing to pay the price and endure the tests that are required to gain entrance to this hall of fame.

In the next level of "Heaven," or the next dimension up, where the spirit helpers and devils make war, the hall is overflowing. It is fully populated, and every seat is occupied as My forces overcome again and again.

Satan has no entrance to the Hall of Warriors, for he is a coward and a yellow-bellied loser, from the time of his fall till now. He has no courage, therefore no honor such as this. This honor is reserved for My warriors of the faith.

It is real. It is the gathering place of the warriors, the hall where the chambers echo with shouts of victory! The hall is filled with praise, tales of overcoming, tales of unmatched conquests over Satan's forces. It is an exciting place to be, and all present feed off of a spirit of praise, as all within glorify Me and give Me honor for the battles that have been won.

It is your commission as warriors to partake of the glory of these halls. It is your destiny to stand with the warriors of all time, in all spheres and dimensions of Heaven. You are called to these sacred halls and can partake of the courage, inspiration, and excitement that is found here.

(Question:) How do these halls interact between dimensions? Or do they even interact? You said they exist in all dimensions of Heaven.

(Jesus:) The power from the higher levels is passed down the line. The very highest level of Heaven contains this Hall of Warriors, where I Myself reside. Tales of great victory are told there, which are sent by messenger and ambassador to the lower courts. These tales are passed down through the levels, and with each tale is passed the power of God to do exploits.

When you enter the Hall of Warriors in spirit, you receive supernatural power from My throne. You receive the power and courage of those in the higher spheres of Heaven. You find a camaraderie with others who fight alongside you in this great spiritual war for the salvation of mankind. Their inspiration inspires you. Their war cries echo in your heart and mind, and your spirit is invigorated.

You will understand when you return to Heaven how this is part of "entering into the temple" that David spoke of. Did you think the "temple" was only one room with a dome to look up at and receive the power from on high? David saw but one room in this temple and described it to you.

The Hall of Warriors is yet another room in the temple of worship to Me. I pass on thrilling, adrenaline-pumping stories of conquests to you in this hall. I encourage your heart and spirit. By entering and partaking of these sessions, you find the power to stand strong and continue fighting for Me.

You will also find the searing heat of hatred for sin and evil in these halls. Compromise has no place here, for the sickening lukewarmness of compromise is vile and detested by those in these halls. Here you will find the strength to bear arms against Satan's wicked hordes. Strength is found here, the strength of the warriors!

(Question:) When we return to Heaven, will we still have a place in the Hall of Warriors?

(Jesus: ) Absolutely! You will be there to tell your tales of overcoming. You will inspire others with your valiant victories against seemingly insurmountable odds. You will be honored in the Hall of Warriors, and all will speak your names in honor.

Those who endure to the end will receive a crown of life and special honor in this hall. Your names will be added to the wall of history upon which all the warriors of all time are inscribed. Your names will be inscribed and honored.

All who enter will speak your name in honor and admiration. For you are My elite upon this Earth. You lead the battles, bear the heat of the battle, and are wounded and suffer loss for My name. Right now you are earning your place in the Hall of Warriors, where you will be remembered for all time.

Do not think this is a light thing. Although many of you have no aspirations to be great in the spirit, it is an honor I readily bestow upon you. You who have fought well deserve this honor and I proudly bestow it upon you. Already many of the names of those who have departed have been inscribed. Your Father David's name is upon this wall, and great honor is given unto him by all who enter herein.

(Question:) It seems that this is a place, sort of like a building in spirit. I know it's much more than that, but what keeps coming to me is the picture of the fairground that Dad saw in the Heavenly City. Is this a pavilion of sorts?

(Jesus:) A pavilion? Yes and no. What you have to understand is that in the spirit world, space and time are not issues. Dimensions overlap and occupy the same space, contrary to the laws of earthly physics. There is one place in Heaven where this pavilion stands, but the experience of each person who enters is different, depending on their "clearance" level.

To those upon whom great honor has been bestowed, the dimensions they enter when they enter this Hall of Warriors are larger than those who have lesser access. While it is one "place" in spirit, the experience is different for each person.

There are some upon whom very little honor has been bestowed, who perceive this merely as a building, and that's all they see when they enter. They see the wall of honor; they see the names and may read of some mighty acts. But that is the extent of their experience.

To those upon whom high honor is bestowed, they enter a dimension where time is suspended, where they can see the battles and they can relive the events as you did. They can take part in the battle and become a part of their brethren's conquests. They experience exactly what it was like to fight and overcome.

There are many levels in between, many dimensions to be experienced, and each person's experience is based upon the clearance they receive.

(Question:) Can You tell us more about this "honor" and "clearance" that You've spoken of?

(Jesus:) These things are your rewards. As you have heard many times, there are rewards for your faithfulness. This honor and clearance is part of your reward. By giving 110% for Me, you receive greater honor in Heaven.

The more you give for Me during your mission on Earth, the higher your reward of honor is, the more places you can enter, the greater your clearance to the things of the heavenly realm.

I do not speak of a classless society, for there are, as your Father David said, "shiners and shamers" in Heaven. There are those who did little and for whom salvation was a "fire escape" upon whom no great honors are bestowed. To them Heaven is a beautiful place, and they have many thrills and excitements, but they cannot enter higher levels till they have earned a place among those upon whom that honor is bestowed.

This is all a part of the rewards of Heaven. The greater your sacrifice, the greater your rewards. I reward you accordingly. Those who receive high honor before Me receive access to places which few others have entrance to.

I do not deal out equal rewards across the board, for that would not be justly rewarding those who have given more or less. I bestow My rewards according to your works, according to your faithfulness, according to your obedience and sacrifice.

Would it be fair of Me to give a martyr for the faith the same reward as the "fire escape" Christian? Or what about those who will be raised to "shame and everlasting contempt"? (Dan.12:2). There are definite levels of rewards in Heaven, and you earn these by your faithfulness and sacrifices.

(Question:) Can these rewards be earned after we depart from this life?

(Jesus:) Yes, through other missions for Me. But believe Me when I say that you can achieve the highest rewards available through this life, for this is a very important mission for Me. This is the mission I have granted you. This is your opportunity to receive great honor and glory in Heaven.

This earthly life is the trial and proving ground through which you will receive great rewards. What you do on Earth determines your rewards in Heaven. Do not feel as though it is okay to shirk this life's tests and trials and take the easy way out now. For this is your battleground. How you perform on this mission determines in large part the rewards you will receive when you return.

Run the race well, fight the good fight, finish the course, keep the faith, and there will be rewards laid up for you that you cannot begin to imagine! Upon you I long to bestow the highest rewards of Heaven because you are My brides, My beloved, and have been thrust into the fray at the most difficult time in world history to stay true to Me.

(Question: ) Can You explain what You mean by "the most difficult time in world history to stay true to Me"?

(Jesus: ) Never in this world's history has it been so easy to abandon your faith and follow after perdition. Never have Satan's temptations been so enticing and desirable. Never before has it been so easy to be distracted and pulled away from your mission.

This is why your missions on Earth, and your faithfulness in them, will bring you such great rewards, because it is so easy here and now to "cast away your confidence, which hath great recompense of reward" (Heb.10:35). Take pride in this fact-that you are upon the most difficult battlefield of history! Take courage that you are still here, that you as My warriors are engaged in the hottest fight in history, and you are still making it, overcoming, and staying true to Me.

(Question: ) Jesus, it seems that the martyrs and Christians who died for their faith in times past had it much more difficult than we do.

(Jesus: ) While it is true that those of times past have suffered much more in the physical for their faith and they have received great rewards for their suffering and pain for My name, the world around them was much more easy to shun.

It was easier to stay true to My name, not because it was easy to be Mine, but because there were fewer temptations and pulls from Satan to derail them. That is why I say that this era in history is the toughest battle ever.-Not because of the physical suffering, but because of how easy it is to give up your calling now.

The trials of the past were great, but for the most part the battles for My children of old came at the end of their lives when it was time to make a stand, when it was time to go out in a blaze of glory. Their battles were much more of a physical nature.

Their enemies were much more obvious, the evil was less complicated, and the right path was much clearer to follow. But you who dwell in this last era of history are besieged and beset continually by propaganda and the ease and temptations of Satan-all designed to pull you away from Me.

The tests are greater on a daily basis. What you face every day is greater than what Christians of past history have suffered. The mind battles, the temptations of the world, the desires of the flesh, the compromises, are so rampant that today the battle is harder on a daily basis than ever before.

So you see, it is tougher, perhaps not in the final physical battles compared to those who were tortured and died for My name, but in the daily conflicts in which you must fight to stay alive in spirit. You die daily; you fight and overcome daily against greater numbers, greater odds, and greater difficulty.

It is much easier to die for My name than it is to live for My name. This is why, although great honor is ascribed to those who have died in the past for Me, greater honor is given to you, My brides, who fight and struggle daily to live for Me.

Upon you I bestow great rewards. For your faithfulness I am preparing such a reward that you will be ashamed for not giving more for Me. Give your all while you can, for this life is your proving ground. This is your test. This is your Gethsemane. This is your martyrdom. If you are called to die for Me in the future, it will be easy compared to what you've already given for Me on a daily basis. So be encouraged, knowing that you are braving some of the worst tests of all time, and thus the rewards will be some of the greatest rewards of all time! (End of message.) (4)

Crowns of Life

(Jesus Speaking:) He that endures to the end shall receive a crown of life. This is not salvation, but a unique crown.

The waters of the River of Life flow from the Father's throne and carry great power and anointing. The crowns of life are likewise a heavenly treasure, and emanate the very spirit of the Father.

These crowns are one of the most highly treasured gifts in the spirit realm. Each crown of life carries with it the very spirit of the Father Who gives life, power, wisdom, strength, and so much more. It is a reward desired and treasured not just amongst those who have lived on Earth, but by all within the spiritual realm. It is a reward given to those who, although they may stumble and fall at times, yet they refuse to stop. They refuse to let go. It is the reward given to those who continue day by day, doing what they can to choose the path they sense Me showing them.

Each day that the children of David continue to move forward as one into the fray, into the smoke and heat of battle, is one day closer to their crowns of life.

It is one reason why you are among the most envied in Heaven. You have been chosen to walk these times of the End. They are uniquely intense and difficult at times, but they have a reward that is equally glorious and eternal.

Being a martyr in a moment takes My dying grace, but continuing to die to yourself, your desires, the lures and attractions of the Enemy at the level of intensity present in these times, and doing it for a lifetime, is a struggle and a challenge that few have had to face.

Not since the days of Noah have there been such intense spiritual allurements poured forth by the Enemy. Had the Father allowed it before now, man, without a strong link to Me, would have again sunk into darkness as all but Noah and his family did in those days.

In the days of darkness ahead, that crown of life held out before you will be a source of vision, joy and conviction. There will be times when there is no strength left, yet you will look up and that crown will stir you to fight on. As the days grow darker, its light will shine the brighter.

Many in the Family are beginning to sense their crown of life. Each is a unique design created of the treasures which the Father has placed within you: the weaknesses, the battles, the failings designed to make you strong and the beauties that grew from them. Each crown is so precious that it is impossible even for Me to gaze upon them without being in awe of My Father's handiwork. They are a manifestation of the Father's special love for you in utter perfection.

Some of you even now are beginning to see glimpses of your crown of life. It's not to be a source of pride about yourself but of humility. Its glory is so far beyond your frail works and attempts to do the right thing. Its radiance shows no hint of your many failings along the way. As a crown is fashioned to fit around a head, so your crown of life is fashioned around core knowledge that you are hopeless without Me to make you strong. But it is the glory of the gold and jewels that wrap around the core which is seen and admired. Your crown of life shows the beauties of your clinging to Me in desperation.

This heavenly treasure will become more visible to you as the End grows closer. Your carnal mind will not be able to describe it, but your spirit will perceive it. It will challenge you when you are despairing. It will empower you when you have no more strength to give. It will spur you on when the mountains seem impossible to cross. But most of all it will envision you when there is nothing your mind can comprehend or your eyes can see that gives any hope.

All that each of you has to do is get up in the morning and set your heart not on what you have to do in the flesh, but set your heart on that crown and nothing else will matter. Nothing will be able to defeat you. (End of message.) (5)

I have a high calling and a crown for each of you. The dramatic story of the Christians on the ice is a good example of what your whole life for Me is like. (See "Crowns on the Ice," ML #3465, GN 1053.) You're all out there on the "ice" of this world--a place where it isn't easy to live the way I ask you to, and where you have to die daily, making sacrifices and putting Me first, even when you can't see Me.

It takes a lot of faith to trust that it's worth it at all. Some people can't take it. Some people run off the "ice" because they no longer believe that I really do have a crown for them, and that fulfilling their mission in life is worth all the difficulty that they encounter. But right now I'm talking to you who are still here, and trusting Me. I'm talking to you who are living your life by faith--not seeing, but still believing.

You are those who will overcome the world. You are My "stars," the ones who are living in a way that the world says is impossible, and who are succeeding against all odds. You are the ones who are putting more emphasis on the world to come rather than the world you see--"choosing rather to suffer affliction with the people of God than to enjoy the pleasures of sin for a season" (Heb.11:25).

There is a great crown of life laid up for you. There is a world after this one in which you who hold on will shine as stars eternally (Dan.12:3). You will have succeeded in your mission to be in the world but not of the world. You will be a testimony to all creation that man can rise above his carnal mind and his mental limitations to believe in something greater, and that your love for Me superseded the restrictions of your mind.

I don't always necessarily show you proof of the next world and of your great reward, but I can put a feeling of certainty in your heart. That certainty comes through being close to Me and letting Me fill you with My words and with My love. The less you think about Me, the less life will seem worth living for Me. But the closer you draw to Me, the closer I can draw to you, and although you may still have no earthly proof, the feeling in your heart will be all the proof you need in order to keep enduring and trusting and doing your part to reap the harvest.

And when you have that faith, then nothing can conquer you or dissuade you! You'll see all the attacks of Satan for what they are, and you'll instead believe every word that I have said. You'll be steadfast and unmovable, trusting in your faith that is a rock-solid knowledge that I am real, and that living your life as I say you should live it is the only truth worth following. Find that faith in Me, and then none of these things will move you. (6)

Work while you still have the light, and absorb all you can of My Words and seeds, that you may shine as the night falls. Many will see your glow and be drawn to it. Blazing torches will My children of David be, to enlighten many with My light and love and Words of truth.

What is your life? It is even a vapor, that appears for a little while and then is gone. Shine brightly now, that all may see your glow and feel the heat of your love. Oh My children, absorb the warmth and fire of My Words, feed on My Spirit and My presence, come to Me to love Me intimately, that you may have the strength and the power you need for the days ahead.

Love your brothers and sisters. Do good unto them of the household of faith. Feed the hungry, visit the widows and fatherless, the needy and the afflicted. Set the captives free, those who sit in darkness awaiting your light and love and smile. Do the work of evangelists, letting none cross your path without affecting their life in some way. Make your calling and election sure as My apostles, those sent with both My message of love and of warning. As you pour out, I will pour in and supply, and will open doors which no man can close.

Seek My seeds. Follow My whispers. Commit your thoughts and words and works unto Me, and I will direct your paths and lead you in the way, saying, "This is the way, walk ye in it," when you turn to the right hand or to the left.

You are My beloved brides, and great will be My rejoicing when we can at last be together in My Kingdom! Until that day, hold tightly to your crown and let no man take it from you. Run the race which I have set before you with patience, looking unto Me, the Author and Finisher of your faith. (End of message from Jesus.) (7)

(Jesus:) Every day you have to make decisions--decisions to yield, decisions to obey, decisions to choose My highest and best, decisions to forsake your own wants and desires. Like your Father David told you many years ago, it's as if every day you've got to choose to die to yourself and your own ideas, to die daily. Every day you're faced with dying to yourself spiritually in order to do My will--and most of the time the decisions you make to serve Me aren't easy; they cost immensely.

You're not faced with martyrdom today. You're not out on the ice about to face your physical death. But every day you've got to choose My will above your own--no matter how difficult, despite the personal cost. That's what discipleship is all about. That's what being a Christian is all about. That's what being a Family member is all about. And it all boils down to little decisions. Are you going to choose My way or your own? Are you going to take the high road or the low road? Are you going to give 110% or just 50%?

You may never know how pivotal one choice is. That's why I urge you to strive to make the right choices, My choices, at every turn. That's why I instruct you to hear from Me, to stay firmly grounded in the Word, and to keep your connection with Me established and strong. It's so that when you're faced with choices, your faith will be strong enough so that you'll make the right ones--choices for Me, choices that will enable My will to play out, choices that will in turn bring fulfillment and happiness to your life, as well as many rewards in the life to come.

My darling brides, please make good, wise, obedient, yielded, sacrificial, loving, spirit-led, Word-based decisions every day. That's how you'll be strengthened in spirit to do My will even when it really costs! And when the time comes for you to receive your beautiful crown of life and heavenly rewards, you won't be ashamed; you'll rejoice, because you'll know that you have done your best, you've run the race with patience, you've made the right choices, and you've served Me well. I'll place your crown on your head and say to you, "Bravo, My obedient, loyal, and deserving bride! Be surrounded by the fullness of My love, and enjoy the totality of your reward!" (End of message.) (8)

(Prophecy:) I am a God of Love and mercy and righteousness and tenderness and forgiveness and sympathy. My judgments are true and righteous altogether. My rewards are absolutely fair. My judgment is totally honest. My recompense is absolutely true.

I give unto each one as he has given unto Me of his life and his labor, his tears and his prayers and his concern. Everything that you do for Me in this life is greatly rewarded in the life that is to come--much more than you could ever imagine! You will be given an hundredfold for every bit of love and concern and labor that is given to My Kingdom.

There is no sacrifice that will go unrewarded or unseen or unnoticed by Me, for I watch your every move and I know your every thought. I see your tears and I hear your prayers. I feel your concern, and when you struggle, I am moved with compassion upon you. When you are tempted and when you are weary and weak, I am moved with compassion upon you. When you are victorious, I rejoice with you. When you are strengthened and you go forth to battle to fight against the Enemy, I see, I hear, I understand, and I record these acts of valor, courage and dedication. And you will be rewarded far beyond your wildest dreams! For I am a just God and I give unto each one his just reward.

For those children of David who serve Me faithfully with all their hearts, who are My warriors of the Endtime, it is noted in the annals of Heaven. There is an everlasting record of your service for Me and the sacrifices you have made, and this record will bring you much glory and much praise in the Heavenly Kingdom.

And so it is with those who fail to serve Me, even those who know Me and love Me but fail to give their lives for Me, but instead serve themselves or serve the worldly kingdom, or serve their own desires or their quest for fame or power or riches. Their lack of service and their lack of sacrifice and their lack of love is also recorded in the annals of Heaven, and there is an everlasting record of their failures and their lack of dedication and service for Me.

So what is everlasting is not their shame, but the record of their shame. For I am a just and loving and tender and compassionate and forgiving God, and even those who are ashamed because they did not serve Me as they should have in their life on Earth, will, with time, be delivered from the shame. They will be restored to a place of happiness and contentment, for they will find forgiveness, and they will be able to learn the lessons that they failed to learn in that life. They will be able to progress, they will be able to serve Me in the life to come, and they will be able to grow and mature and become strong in My Spirit.

But you, My children of David, are already strong in the Spirit and strong in your knowledge of My Word. You are already My warriors of the Endtime. The great sacrifices that you make, your lives of service to Me, and your willingness to lay down your lives and resist the temptations of the world and the sirens of the System who beckon you to come and partake of her riches and her pollution and her corruption and wickedness, shall be recorded!

You who resist these temptations because of your great love for Me and your desire to serve Me shall be raised to receive a great crown of reward, and your faithful service on Earth shall be remembered. It shall be an everlasting glory to you. It shall be an everlasting honor that you gave your life and you believed and you served Me, having not seen. This shall be counted unto you as great faith, and for this, you shall receive a great reward, and with it, tremendous happiness and contentment. Everywhere you travel in My Heavenly Kingdom, you shall be known as My faithful children, those who gave their lives for Me in the Endtime, those who were My final witnesses of the End!

This is a crown of reward that shall never be taken from you! It shall be remembered and revered and heralded for all time. This is the everlasting reward of the children of David. (End of prophecy.) (9)
