Prophecy Vitamins on Trusting in the Lord

Book 2, Compilation #20 of TCOB pubs on the subject, by theaudiokey.com team - November 2019

(All prophecies are Jesus speaking unless otherwise indicated)

1. You show Me the depths of your love for Me through your utmost faith and trust in Me.
2. With each thought, each fear, each situation or circumstance, you must make a decision in that moment to trust Me.

Trust Me in all things and fear not, for I do all things well.

When you trust Me with all of your heart, when you trust Me with your life and every aspect of it, you can know that you are in My will. So if you would have perfect peace, then trust.

Trust Me that I do all things well, and that all things work together for good to them that love Me.

6 (Dad speaking:) Sometimes there are situations that we personally cannot understand. Because we didn't wish it, and we tried to prevent it, to us it seems like a defeat and a failure. But I still firmly believe that God never fails those who trust Him.

Don't let the Enemy rob you of your faith and trust in God! Don't let the Enemy instill his fear and worry and doubts in your mind. God won't fail you.

I want you to step out on the limb of prayer more, and through committing things to Me more diligently in prayer, you'll be better able to trust Me and have faith for the outcome. You'll be less entangled in the worries or concerns that can sometimes limit your faith.

You can trust that no matter what you may face, I will be there by your side and I will uphold you and I will be very close to you.

Dependence on Me equals trust, trust brings peace, peace makes way for rest, in rest you find strength, and through My strength you will be all that I need you to be.

Each must make their choice. But My choice is for all to pass through into the Promised Land of My love and of My blessings. And all that it takes to pass through is faith and trust and belief in Me. Faith that I can carry you through, trust that I will carry you through, and belief that I love you enough to carry you through.

For as time marches closer to the End, so must My children be empowered by My Spirit in a new and greater way. But I can only empower those who make the decisions that they need to make, that make the decisions to put Me first, that make the decisions to trust Me with all of their hearts.

The old must make way for the new.--But who are the old? The old are only those who will not change, who will not allow themselves to be stirred up, who will not take the step of faith, who will not trust Me. And who are the new?--The new are those who drink in My new wine, who trust, who say, 'Oh, yes, I will go! I don't know not what is there, but I will go.'

Those of you who say 'yes' unto Me and who follow Me and who yield to Me and who trust Me, you are they that walk in the Spirit.

So strengthen your faith, My loves. That's the bottom line. Strengthen your muscles of praise and trust in Me. Trust through the hard times, through the darkness, and when the light comes, all will be made clear.

You need to get practiced in praising Me through the bad, finding the good, and giving Me the blessing and honor of your trust even when you don't understand.

Love Me, My precious one, as I love you. Hold on to Me, as I hold on to you. Trust Me, even as I trust you to follow Me and do My bidding. I will not fail you nor forsake you. I will be with you each step of the way so that you might lean on Me and find the strength and reassurance that you need to carry on.

Trust in My love for you. Trust in My wisdom as to where I'm leading you and what I'm asking of you. Trust that I will do all things for your good, for your progress and strengthening. Trust that I will never leave you comfortless, but I will come to you and I will also send others to comfort you. I know your needs, and I will provide all that you need to fight this battle and to go on to greater victories if you hold on and don't give up.

Have no fear of what's ahead. My love and Spirit can and will cast out all fear if you trust in Me fully.

(Dad:) You can't look down the road and worry and wonder how you're going to make it. Goodness! Forget worrying about how you're going to do it. You can't do it in your own strength or in your own wisdom or experience. It's going to be a work of God, a miracle of God, a result of your having faith and complete trust in His anointing. You just have to have faith, trust Him, believe in His promises, and carry on!

21. (Dad:) Receive the Lord's peace; receive His Words. Believe them, hold on to them, and keep trusting that He's going to do exactly what He's promised. That's where your strength will come from--faith in Him--the God of all Heaven and Earth, Who is more than able to give you perfect peace, perfect trust, and anoint you to walk through any test or battle and come out victorious!

You have to put your trust in Me and My promises, and be convinced that what I say, I am able to perform-even through weak vessels such as you.

Selfishness and greed are actually based on a lack of trust in Me. You think that you have to get while the getting's good, because the time may come when you'll need it and won't have it. In this carnal mindset you completely forget to factor Me into the equation. You leave Me out of the picture entirely, and by so doing you neglect your greatest source of supply and provision.

Praise Me for the answer even before it comes and you will soon see that the answer is there. The answer is coming. It is on its way, but you must keep on trusting. Trust and obey! Faint not! Fight on!

Do what you can, but trust Me to do what you can't.

Trust Me and know that I will be with you, helping you.

When you go on the attack and are positive and show that you have faith in the Word, faith in the Lord, faith in praise, it's a sign that you really trust and you really believe.

I am able! I ask only for your faith, your trust, and your willingness and yieldedness to fight with all that is in you; to do it for Me.

The victory is getting closer and closer. Don't fear. Just trust. Remember, when the way is rough and you get weary, look to Me.

Trust Him - when dark days assail you;
Trust Him - when your faith is small.
Trust Him - when to simply trust Him
Is the hardest thing of all.

The more you trust Me, the more you are empowered to ask and receive. You want the signs first, but it doesn't work that way. You have to believe and keep believing, and that's when you see the answers.

You're making it today, aren't you? Life is challenging, but you're making it, right? Trust that I will be sufficient in your future also.

I'm walking this path toward the future beside you; trust that I know where we're going. Even if you're not sure of the steps I show you to take, you can trust Me to lead and guide you safely and well. I love you and care about each step of your life.

Do what you can, but genuinely, truly, whole-heartedly trust Me for the rest. It's too easy for My children to think they are trusting Me for the rest, but then to run off and try to do the rest in their own strength. Trusting Me for the rest is not simply a state of mind--it affects your actions, it permeates your attitude, it comes out in your conversations. Trusting Me for the rest is a way of life.

Nothing excites Me more than seeing you put your trust in Me and Me alone. This is what motivates Me to honor your faith and to grant you your heart's desires. You honor Me with your requests, and I love to honor you with the answers to them.

If there's one thing that I want to settle in your heart and mind, it's this: I am in control, and you can put your faith and trust fully in Me, because I know what I am doing.

No matter what changes come your way, or what personal metamorphosis you go through, I still need you to love Me, to trust Me, and to follow Me. That will never change. Many things must change, but those elements will stay the same.

Lack of hope and faith dries up the soul and spirit. Hope in Me--your God, your rock, your salvation, your strength. For if you place your hope and faith in Me, I will honor your trust and will not disappoint it.

I want you to know that I desire and will do the impossible for you if you cease from your fretful, futile, and frantic struggle to keep yourself, to deliver yourself, to work out your own problems. I am the Lord that keepeth thee. I want you to put your life into My hands, to rest in Me, to learn to totally trust where you don't understand, and to let Me lift you above every problem that comes your way; to get you so confident in Me that nothing will easily shake you.

Have faith, believe, trust and obey, and I will show you the way. Put your hand into My hand and step out into the impossible with Me.

If you're going to let Me work, you've got to give Me the trust and the space and the time I need.

The key of peace will help you to pause and to place your trust in Me rather than plowing ahead in your own strength. It will make you extremely wise.

The key of trust will cause you to float. You will glide on My Spirit, knowing that all is under control. You smile, and rest, you love Me, you trust that I will work for you and do whatever is needed; you have perfect faith.

It takes faith, yes. It takes courage; it takes daring to trust Me. It takes the “God factor”-- putting your trust wholly and completely in Me, claiming My Word, and expecting Me to do miracles, to do what you cannot do. It takes ignoring possible consequences when the doubters say, “No, no, no, it can't be done.” It takes taking a stand.

(Dad speaking:) The Lord just expects you to trust Him.

He didn't say we'd walk by sight; He said we'd walk by faith. He didn't say we'd understand with our carnal minds; He said that His thoughts are not our thoughts, and that His ways are as high above ours as the heavens are above the Earth. In fact, He instructed us to trust in Him with all our heart and not to lean to our own understanding. That's not me speaking--that's God's Word, and it's as true now as it ever was! And you can trust it now just as much as you ever did.

Do not fear for anything, but put your trust in Me.

Trust Me to keep you and all of your loved ones around the world. Trust Me to bring victories out of seeming defeats, because that's what I specialize in.

Never turn your back on the Enemy. Never flinch, or concede defeat, or wonder what the outcome will be or fear how long the battle will last. Fear will be your defeat. Faith and trust in My promises to you, in My love for you, and in the unsurpassed weapons of the spirit, is your victory. Believe and hold on, and the victory will be yours.

It's easier for you to trust Me if you are doing your part, because obedience gives you the faith to know that I will do Mine.

Absolute trust in Me is at the root of being a new bottle, because when you trust Me completely, you're willing to flow with Me when I lead somewhere new, without worrying what will happen to you or those you love as a result.

Saying yes to Me is a sign of your faith and trust and is afforded all the promises that go along with that. If you want excitement in your life and want to break out of your ruts, this is the best way to get things moving. And when My Spirit starts moving, you can expect anything-great and wonderful things!

If you truly are here only for Me, and if you determine in your heart that you want only what I want, then you'll be able to more fully trust, thinking not of yourself and of what I and others can do for you, but thinking of Me and of others and what you can do for us.

Although it's a time of testing now, it will not be forever. It's only My way of teaching you to come to Me, to draw on Me, to find satisfaction in Me, to trust Me, to lean on Me, to be open and honest with Me, and to give to Me of yourself.

He that trusts wholly in Me continues to walk by faith. And as you walk by faith, you'll see the promises, the rewards, and the blessings.

Just as children have childlike faith and trust in their loving, devoted mother's and father's love for them, so should you be with Me. I won't give you a stone when you ask for bread, and it's simply a matter of faith.

You must learn to trust that I am in control and that it's My work and I will do it.

It's a choice you can make every day to ease up, let Me lead, slow things down, and to rest in Me in heart and spirit and trust Me for everything.

Have faith to trust Me to take care of the problems.

It takes faith to trust that My way will prove best, and obedience to go ahead and take the steps necessary to make My way happen.

I have provided answers in My Word for every problem and situation. I have provided a solution for every need. I have given of My life and I have shed My blood for you, and I will not fail anyone who turns to Me for help. But you must trust completely in Me. You must look to Me for the answers and solutions to your particular needs and problems.

Trust fully in Me. Look to My Spirit. Let My Word encourage your faith and help you to realize that all things are in My hands. Not one thing that you commit to My hands will fall or be taken away.

In all points I was tempted, but I kept on going. I kept the faith and therefore obtained the crown. You will too as you do your best and trust in Me with all your heart, soul, mind, and body.

Trust in Me, and trust in My promise that all things will work together for good for those who love Me.

(Dad:) Praise Him and trust Him, for He does all things well. Remember that He's in full control, and He's not going to let a thing happen to any of His children without His express permission.

Above all, I want you to know My unending love for you, and that I would never do anything that wasn't for your good. Do you believe and trust that?

Be patient, My loves, and trust Me. You will see the fulfillment of My promises-all will come to pass, and not one will fail.

Don't worry about it; trust Me!

I love you and I'm not going to fail you! Will you please give your cares and burdens to Me and trust Me for your future?

Smile! You look so beautiful when you smile-even if the smile comes through your tears. It tells Me and others that you trust Me and that you know everything's going to be okay, because I'm your Husband and I won't let you down.

Trust in My promises completely, even if you don't see the answers as you'd like them.

(Dad:) When He knows the time and circumstances are right for you, then you will receive the blessing if you trust and have faith. It will pay off eventually and His promises will come to pass and be fulfilled if you continue to have faith and trust.

When you obey the things I tell you to do through blind obedience, this is the kind of faith and trust that pleases Me most.

75. You trust, I deliver. Trust is the currency that pays the rent. Trust is the magic carpet that enables you to fly above the obstacles. Trust is the key to open doors. Trust is the current that carries your ship to its desired haven. And trust will be the wind that will continue to fill your sails as you go whithersoever I will.

You're talking to the Premier Master at turning defeat or seeming defeat into victory. I've been at this for a long time, so believe Me when I say I'm capable. Will you let Me have a go? I'll need you to give Me space to work. Will you trust Me? I'm here for you.

No problem is beyond My ability to solve, but sometimes I do not solve problems right away or change the situation, because I am working out something better for you. Trust Me that I know best. Hold out for My best, and be blessed!

Real faith never quits, and you will never be defeated as long as you keep fighting, keep praying, and keep looking to My Word for the answers. As long as you never give up, but trust in My strength to help you, you will always rise above the obstacles of life.

Resting in the Lord is an act of deep trust and love. It's a verb--an action--because you have to consciously put forth the effort to trust in Him rather than in your own natural abilities, which doesn't always come easily.

Your part is to have faith, to trust in Me, to lean on Me, and to continue to trust in Me no matter what.

The easiest way is to trust Me, no matter how hard your path in life may seem. The easiest way is to commit everything into My care.

My heart rejoices in the fact that you trust Me and My plan, despite the times when you can't see in which direction it's heading. When you live the life that I've given you joyfully, I'm greatly pleased.

Trust Me to see you through, because you know you are doing My will.

I am not fear; I am peace. I am not worry; I am faith. I am not stress; I am trust. Be all that I am, and you will have the spirit of calm that you desire in your life.

It's not impossible to find that perfect peace and rest that My Word talks about. "I will keep him in perfect peace whose mind is stayed on Me, because he trusteth in Me." What is perfect peace? Perfect peace is when little things don't disrupt your focus on Me; when problems, dilemmas, setbacks, and interferences don't even jolt your connection of faith and trust in Me.

How do you get that perfect peace? It says it very clearly right there in the verse: "...because he trusteth in Me." Start trusting Me. Show your trust in Me through your praises to Me. Show your trust in Me through spending time with Me and casting your cares on Me. And as you do, I will keep you in perfect peace, and you too will gain this spirit of perfect peace within you.

As you look to Me each step of the way and trust and obey Me each step of the way, I will not fail you in any one of My good promises.

Please trust Me that I am not limited by many or by few.

Trust Me. Believe Me. Have faith in Me, that I am more than able to open the right doors to the right people, and close the doors that are not of Me.

All you need to do is stay close to Me, love Me, hear from Me, and trust what I say.

So press on, My dear ones! Look not at the present or at the current difficulties, but look at the future. Look at the rewards that await you. Trust My promises unto you. Hang on by faith and know that you are precious brides and valuable instruments in My hand. I will not leave you nor forsake you.

9 I can relieve your fears and dry your tears if you accept My love and My encouragement. All the stress and worry can be calmed if you take My Spirit upon you and trust.

Simply rest and trust and believe, and I will calm the troubled seas.

Come to Me, trust Me, and let Me strengthen you and give you the anointing you need for this battle. I will bring you through as even finer gold, more precious than before--more trusting, more believing, an even better vessel in My hand, if you hold fast to your faith and fight.

When you trust, believe, and accept things from My Spirit and look at things with My point of view, your spirit will be lifted because you'll be seeing the truth. Once you see the truth and you hold on to it with believing faith, it won't even matter so much to you what the Enemy tries to tell you, because you've heard the truth from Me and you can hang on to it. Pretty soon the Enemy will just take his pile of lies and leave.

Don't let yourself feel the pressure, but have faith, trust Me, and let Me take the pressure for you.

I need you who trust implicitly in My foresight and love in giving you what you need in order to be a soldier in My Endtime army. I need you who choose to lean on Me, for you know and trust that in that leaning you will find your strength.

My purpose will be accomplished and My will will be fulfilled. You must simply trust in Me and have faith in Me for the outcome. Worry not, fear not, fret not!

Trust Me. Hold My hand. Continue to move forward, step by step.

I say to you, trust, be patient, and have faith.

Do not seek to understand with the flesh that which is wrought in the spirit, but only trust Me.

I ask you to trust Me, to continue loving Me, to walk by faith, to believe, to hold on.

(Dad:) Just keep on loving Him and hold onto Him and have faith and trust Him.

Trust Me and let go, and let Me make you all that I want you to be.

You must continue to fight and have faith, and simply trust that I'm able to perform all that I've promised and spoken.

(Dad:) Yours is a special calling, a unique ministry, a unique message. It pays to obey the Lord. It pays to stay true to what He shows you. That's what He's calling the Family to do today. That's the calling of prophets--to obey what the Lord shows them today and trust Him for the future.

Trust Me, My loves. I know what I'm doing, even if you don't. I know where the road's leading, even if you can't see very far ahead.

The question that I ask each of you is: Will you trust Me? Are you ready to lay aside your own preconceived thoughts, opinions, and mindsets, even your own preferences, likes, and dislikes, and accept My mind on these matters? Are you ready to let Me change your attitudes if necessary?

It's My business, and only I have the answers. Will you trust that I know best? Will you follow Me?

Take a look at your attitude and ask yourself which is more prominent: faith, praise, and trust?--Or fretting, doubt, and worry?

(Jesus:) True, strong faith is confidence; it's belief, trust, assurance, reliance, and an undeniable dependence on My power. That type of faith doesn't always expect Me to answer in exactly the way you request, but it knows that the end result will be that of My choosing--My highest and perfect will.

You will be amazed and astounded at the rewards laid up for you, for every ounce of faith and trust that you have placed in Me.

Ask Me to help you to see things as I see them--through the eyes of faith and trust. I will give you the right outlook, and I will encourage your heart with words of comfort and hope for the future.

Cast your burdens on Me and trust that I hold the future in My hands.

I'm moving My children in a new direction, higher up the mountain, and this will require faith on your part--faith to trust Me, faith to make the changes, faith to go forward.

Move forward by faith, putting your trust in Me and My promises. For I will do more than you've ever imagined, and it will come about because of your faith and your obedience and your willingness to move on to the new.

The key to being able to change is faith. If you can trust Me that I know what I'm doing, if you can trust that everything is going to work out well; if you can believe it when I say things will get better; if you can have faith enough to obey what I tell you, then you will change in the ways I want you to.

If you don't understand why you need to change or why a particular change is the right one, that's when the trust factor comes in.

It is your utter dependence on Me that turns Me on. It is your declaration of faith in Me and trust in Me to do what you cannot do that lights My fire. How I delight in such faith and trust. How it brings Me joy to work on your behalf.

(Dad:) When you commit things to the Lord in prayer, then you can just trust that whatever happens is in His hands and under His control.

Leaping over this hurdle is just the same as any other hurdle that you have faced in your life. It's the same process--yieldedness, trust, faith, and prayer.

You've got to form the mental habit of putting everything into the "trust" box, not holding so tightly onto things, but continuing to learn to just flow with what I bring--or what I take away, or don't allow, or what doesn't work out.

Trust fully in My love for you, knowing that I give what is best for you, and that which will make you happy.

Trust in Me; trust not in your feelings. For though your feelings are real, yet I am able to override them, and I am able to lift you up in My arms, to lift up your spirit, to lift up your heart.

I know exactly how to use each of My children. I have a plan and purpose for each one, and I do all things well. I will not give you more than you can bear, or call you to do something that you cannot do. Trust Me, for I am a loving God and I will do that which is best for you.

Even if all around you seems dark, just reach out for My hand and let Me guide you and walk with you through this time, and soon you and I will be out of the tunnel and back in the light of a new world. You may not see, but I see very well, and I will guide you slowly and surely along the path ahead if you trust Me and let Me direct you.

You can't trust and worry at the same time.

Trust Me, that I know what is best for you.

The best things happen to those who trust Me completely, and who happily flow with what I have planned.

(Jesus:) One important fruit that results from a good spiritual life is peace, quiet trust in Me. I'm talking about the kind of peace that is not shaken every time an obstacle arises or something doesn't pan out. I'm talking about the kind of trust in Me that allows you to go through your day--regardless of circumstances--knowing that I'm in control

You've got to trust Me, no matter what the situation looks like to you.

Your confidence and trust in Me as you walk the path of My will is a beautiful testament to others of your unshakable love and faith in Me. Because you know I'm looking out for you, you can be confident that I want what's best for you. You can trust Me and lean on My everlasting arms.

You must choose to cast your care upon Me, to trust Me with all your heart.

If you choose to trust Me with your heart, I will make you better, not bitter.

Rest in Me and trust in Me and I will pour forth blessings upon you, showers of blessings and showers of love. But ye must do your part. Ye must hold on, ye must trust, ye must believe and ye must not doubt.

Some trust in chariots, some in horses, but My children trust wholly in Me, and I shall win the battle!

(Dad speaking:) It's still the same formula--you have to trust and obey. Trust and obedience come first, then He answers your prayer and gives you the anointing and faith you need to do His will.

The key is --trust and obey. Then you'll reap the rewards of your obedience.

Blessed are all they that put their trust in Me, for surely I am their refuge and strength.

I say to you, My children, though emergencies, crashes and wars surround you, it will not come nigh you if you put your trust in Me, for I will take care of My Own.

Just step out by faith and trust Me that I will do what I have promised.

Trust Me that I will give you what you need.

Trust Me for the future.

Whether there be wars or famine or pestilence in these Last Days, no harm will come nigh you who put your trust in Me, who know Me and love Me and do My will. For I have promised, and I will fulfill My Word. So no evil will befall you who put your trust in Me, nor will any harm touch you, for I send My angels to surround you, to guard you and keep you in all your ways.

Whenever you've chosen Me in the past, I've always come through for you in one way or another. I've always pulled you through the thick of the battle, seen you through the darkest of nights and the grimmest of situations. It's no different now. If you'll put your trust in Me and do the things I ask you to do, I will not fail you. I never have in the past, and I will not fail you now, nor in the future.

If you'll trust in Me, put your full focus on Me, then nothing can stop you! If you'll lean fully on Me and do all you can, I will do all the rest, what you can't do for yourself.

(spirit helper speaking:) You have to know and see the Lord and His hand in your life and in the lives of the ones you're working with. You have to have the faith that the Lord is in control. He not only wants to work things out, but He will, in His time and way. He has a place and a plan for everything and you have to trust Him to do it His way, the best way.

You are My most beloved children, and I will keep you as you put your trust in Me.

Remember who I am--not only the great, all-powerful God of the universe, but your Husband, your Lover--the One who cares for you more than any human ever could! I know, I care, I watch, I intervene. And My power is unlimited when called upon by those who put their trust in Me--not in name only, but in obedience, faith, and dependence upon Me.

Blessings do not precede obedience, but very few have the faith to trust Me for those unseen blessings.

Trust and obey, and you will see all things will work together for your good.

Trust, My children, that I go before you and prepare the way, and though My ways are not your ways, all these things will work together for your good.

I'm not going to deprive or desert those who put their trust in Me, those who give Me their all.

Some trust in chariots, some in horses, but those who put their trust in Me, and in the keys, they will rise above, and there will be no impossibilities to them.

It takes a step of faith to trust that what you cannot see is planned by Me, and that I will not let harm come to you, but rather will prosper you.

Trust that My arms are strong enough to carry you and hold you up.

Nothing is a greater compliment of your trust and dependence on Me than expecting Me to do the impossible, and that kind of faith is the perfect platform for miracles.

If I've willed you to be here at this time, then you can trust Me to know that you've got what it takes and that you'll unlock your destiny and fulfill it when the timer rings.

I know that you can only do so much and then you just have to trust Me for the rest. That's all that I ask. Just do what you can do. Take the steps I have shown you to take. Use the weapons I have given you to use, and then trust that I will come through for you and do what only I can do.

Even if it looks like defeat and darkness, I shall bring great victory out of these things. Just trust Me and trust My plan and the way that I am working.

Therefore raise a standard against him and fight--even if the only way you can fight is to run to My arms, to rest in My arms, to trust Me with your last breath, to use the tiniest bit of strength that you have to call out to Me!

(Jesus:) I have the inner calm of trust that I wish to place around your shoulders as a garment of protection to protect you from the evil darts of the Enemy.

As you yield and put your trust in Me, it moves My hand to equip you and fit you with the bright, shining armor of My love.

Be not afraid, neither fear the fiery darts of the Evil One who would try to stifle you, who would try to stop the flow of love with his ridiculous, puny attempts! How absurd are his futile attempts--like trying to stop the rain! He cannot stop the rain as long as you keep your eyes on Me, your hand in Mine, and your trust and faith firmly in Me. For My love reigns supreme!

Stand strong in My power and see Me fight for you, for it is I Who go with you both to fight and to win the victories! Therefore, fear not, for I do not leave you comfortless. I will perform all that I promise. I will fight for you and I will be your strength. Only put your trust in Me and yield your all to Me. I am the Lord your God, and I will not forsake you. What I have begun in you, I will perform until the end!

Do not look at the waves or the wind, or the seeming outcome, but just trust Me. Trust Me in the darkness, that you may see the light."

You must continue to believe My promises no matter what the Enemy tries to tell you and no matter how you feel. Trust My Word to you and My power to complete the work that I've begun.

I'll show you how to fight each battle, and I promise that I'll give you the strength for each one as you hold on to your faith and trust Me.

Trust Me, My love, for I know what's ahead. I know exactly how much you can endure, and I promise that I won't give you more than you can bear.

Trust Me, once again, as your wise Potter Who has not once failed you, and let Me remake you into a better vessel.

So have faith, My brides. Have faith in Me. Trust Me that what I am bringing about is for your good.

Learn to trust Me and to believe that whatever I bring into your life is for your good and will strengthen you.

Your times are in My hands. Trust Me with your future.

I derive great joy when My children rest in Me, putting down all their weights and letting Me bear their burdens. This is the ultimate in faith and trust in My love, when My brides cease from their own works and efforts, and labor to enter into My rest.

Whatever is My will, trust with your heart in Me, and I will bring it to pass.

So do not question, do not try to figure it out, but trust Me. Trust Me and thank Me and look to My Word.

There comes a point when you simply have to trust--believing because I have said so

As you obey Me, I will demonstrate how stepping out to trust Me, regardless of any worldly limitations, will result in doing and seeing and receiving the impossible.

. (Dad:) Faith and obedience have brought supply and miracles for God's people all throughout the ages, and those same spiritual principles are in play today. If you obey God, even if by faith alone, whatever kind of miracles you need are guaranteed. That's a fact! He'll never fail, if you trust Him and do your part.

(Dad:) Do what you can, and trust the Lord for the rest, and He'll take care of you. Praise the Lord!

Continue to strengthen yourselves in the spirit, in hearing from Me, in loving Me and becoming My bride, in trust and in faith in the Word.

Be not easily shaken by circumstances and conditions, nor wonder how My Word can be fulfilled when it seems contrary to the natural. In due time you will see, if you continue to trust and believe and obey. Seeing is the reward of faith.

You who trust in Me and lean on Me have no place for the impossible in your hearts, because you belong to Me.

You must have a trust in Me that I know what is best for your spirit, even if at times it means sacrifice and denial to your flesh and its desires.

Trust that I am with you and really do love you.

Trust that I'll give you what you need for today and tomorrow, when you need it. I love you!

Each of you has a testimony that is different from all the others, but it is the principles, the choices, that are critical elements--the decisions to keep following Me no matter what you may face. Each person has to trust that I have made them with all that they need in order to turn their circumstances to good, if they will bring them to Me, allow Me to use them by yielding to what I am doing in their life, and then, turn it around to help others whom I bring across their path.

You are my child, and so the burden of your care and all that you do falls upon Me and is My responsibility as your parent. As you lie in My arms in total peace and trust and faith in My complete care for you, resting peacefully, nothing can trouble you or touch you, for the responsibility and the consequences for it all rests on Me.

All things are possible to Me! Therefore lift up your eyes to Me. Reach out with the hand of faith to My Spirit, and trust in Me.

Are you ready to face all that I have for you? Are you ready to receive all that I give you and trust in Me with all your heart? Are you ready to look both good and bad in the face and know that I work all things together for good to those who love Me?

(Ayin:) I am he who stands in the courts of Heaven, he who represents your spiritual needs before the throne of Heaven. I intercede on your behalf. I have been in the halls of Heaven for a very long time, and all that I have seen has taught me to trust in our mighty Lord. He has never failed. He has guided, He has kept, and He has led His children throughout all ages.

You see the future through a glass darkly, but I see the big picture very clearly. Trust Me.

Nothing could make Me love you more than I do already, but if anything could, it would be seeing your love and loyalty when you make the choices to yield to and accept the difficult things in your life, to trust Me through them, to fight when I say to fight, and to be what I want you to be.

Trust in My power to defeat Satan and any of Hell's Angels. Their fate is sealed, which they know right well. They haven't said "uncle" yet, but they will. Trust Me.

Trust Me, My darlings. Trust Me in all things, and My Spirit and My answers and My success will flood into your lives, convincing you beyond a shadow of a doubt that you are Mine, and that I have called you, chosen you, blessed you, and ordained you that you should go and bring forth fruit. You will do it. In My Name you will conquer!

I expect you to have hope, because there is so much that I can do for you if you trust in Me.

Thank You that we don't have anything to worry about; all we have to do is trust You and obey what You tell us to do.

Soak in My Words and My comfort to you, and let it renew your faith and trust in Me as never before.

Trust Me, for I am with you and will strengthen you. Your weakness is My strength, and I will work in you and use you mightily.

Il that I have said will come to pass as you walk on in faith. I will lead, protect, and guide you. No harm will come near you as you put your faith and trust in Me.

(Dad:) That's how this revolution began, and this is how it's gonna continue--by steamrolling ahead, trusting God, and obeying what He tells us to do, no matter how you feel, how crazy it seems, or how impossible it looks!

Faith will also give you the trust to know, beyond the shadow of a doubt, that all things that you go through are but a moment in time--a testing ground as well as a steppingstone to greater heights, greater love and fruitfulness for Me and others.

Take a moment to express to Me via your thoughts whatever weighs on you, and tell Me you will let go of it because you trust Me to take care of it.

It takes a lot of faith to trust that it's worth it at all.

205. In order to make way for Me to work, you will want to stay right with Me, strong spiritually, obedient, united, and open to My Spirit. When you are doing all you can, wisely, efficiently, professionally, and consistently, then you can trust that I'll do the rest, I'll bring the increase.

206. Think about the last time you "rededicated" yourself to Me, and remember the peace that I gave you then, knowing that regardless of what was to come next, it was going to work out for your good, and the trust that it gave you in Me.

Miracles will happen for those who are excited about seeing Me work, and who are willing to trust Me no matter what!

My blessings come after the obedience, not before. But trust Me, they do come!
