

SINLESS SEX AND MARRIAGE

God's Sex Position!

(Revised Mo Letter No 002 - RML 002)

Written by Moses David, 1984. Revised and Edited by Andres Nueva Vida, 2022 for theaudiokey.com

God's first commandment to man and his wife in the first book of the Bible, first chapter, the 28th verse says, "Be fruitful and multiply, and replenish the Earth." Or "Thou shalt have sex!" Think of that!

Sex in marriage was God's first commandment to man, and to have sex with your spouse was man's first obedience to God! Contrary to the doctrine of some churches, man's first sin was not sex, because sex is not a sin, but God created it in the very beginning to be enjoyed by all in His season. Those parts which fit each other, those nerves which give us pleasure, when put in pleasured motion, those rapturous ecstasies and orgasmic explosions were being enjoyed by Adam and Eve as a part of pleasures of God's wonderful Creation in a pure, sinless Garden of Eden, long before Satan entered in with his temptation.

Adam and Eve enjoyed sex as a marriage before they fell, and were created with sexual organs to do so, at the very beginning! So how could sex in marriage be sinful, if they were commanded to practice it before the fall? Sex was not a result of the fall of man and the introduction of sin, as it's taught by some of the deluded churches and believed by so many poor church people to therefore still be sinful today. It simply is not true according to the Bible!

You mean God was so sexy that He put those two most gorgeous people who ever lived in that beautiful Garden of Eden stark naked? Totally nude? Without even a fig leaf? You mean to tell me that He allowed them, commanded them to immediately participate in sex? Yes! And it wasn't a sin? Of course not! And it still isn't a sin to have sex? In fact He made men and women to have sex in their marriage! If it's a sin, then God is a sinner because He made it, and He commanded Adam to have sex with Eve before the fall, before Satan even came along"

(Note from Andres Nueva Vida: Actually the newly-wed couple in the Old Testament weddings enjoyed themselves first and before the wedding party, and only afterwards the party started! -See <https://www.bible.ca/marriage/ancient-jewish-three-stage-weddings-and-marriage-customs-ceremony-in-the-bible.htm>)

So if you want to blame somebody, blame God! Or thank Him! Hallelujah! He created sex and the human body not as something evil, but as His own beautiful and wonderful creations to be revealed and enjoyed to the full in his time and his season!

If sex and your body are unclean, Why did God make it? And if He didn't intend for you to enjoy sex with your spouse, why did He put all those nerves in your sexual organs that make you feel so good? So how can sex possibly be wrong when God made it and He made your body, and He made your sexual organs? He made it for you to enjoy with the right person at the right time in the right places!

So sex is not evil after all, but a wonderful gift from God to be freely and fully enjoyed in the right relationship. The devil was not responsible for sex, It was not a result or a part of the fall, but it was created and instituted by God at the very beginning, as His creation for you to enjoy with your very lovely spouse! Not only to enable you to have children, which is a wonderful part and result of it, but also to have fellowship with your husband or wife!

Contrary to the false doctrines of many churches, there is not one single place in the entire Bible that states or proves that nudity in marriage is evil, or sex with your spouse is wrong! In fact in the original creation God intended for people to run around stark naked in the open air in the Garden, with no houses, no bedrooms and no privacy, and to have intimacy on the grass under the trees, right out in the open!

Nudity and sex in the Garden were the first order of the day. And therefore having being created by God in the nude, and never having known clothing or any kind of bodily covering, they didn't even know they were naked; Adam and Eve had been looking at each other for God knows how long, and a long time, they had ben looking at each other's nudity and sexual parts totally exposed and unclothed thoughroughly enjoyed sex, and never even thought of it as being bad or evil.

They only became ashamed of their God-created bodies after they fell and had sin in their hearts, the wrong sinful view of things! Before that with pure sinless hearts and a Heavenly outlook, they weren't even conscious of being naked, because there was anything else! All was beautiful until Satan lied to them undermining their faith in God's Word regarding the Tree of the Knowledge of Good and Evil, so that they disobeyed and sinned against the Lord. And when they took off the fruit of that tree of the Knowledge of Good and Evil, suddenly they thought nudity was bad. The Devil put the thought in their minds, that sex was evil, and that it was wrong to show their sexual parts. Then the Lord came along and caught them saying, "-Where are thou?" To which Adam replied, - I was afraid because I was naked, and I hid myself!" Genesis 3:9,10.

Now remember, they'd been naked ever since they were created! And when all they knew was the knowledge of good, they weren't even aware of it! They saw each other, and each other's bodies, and never thought anything of it! Except that they were very beautiful, and they liked to make love to each other as the first human marriage, but they never thought or saw anything wrong with it, because there was nothing wrong with it! The Lord then asked them, "Who told thee that thou wast naked?" Genesis 3:30.

Where did they get the idea that they were naked, that it was wrong to be naked? The Devil told them they were naked! Instantly, as soon as they disobeyed, the Devil polluted their minds with the lie that nudity was evil, and that the sexual parts were evil, and that they should be hidden. A lie of the Devil. Part of the knowledge of evil that came into man's heart through sin and disobedience. The Devil knew that if he could get them to believe that nudity was evil, then of course they would believe that sex must be very evil too, because nudity is the baring of the body and its sexual parts, and if that's wrong, if that's evil, then the sexual parts themselves must be evil, the body itself must be evil, and of course, sex itself even with your spouse, must be evil, very evil. If it's wrong to be naked, then it must be wrong to have sex, because how are you going to enjoy sex without being naked?

Remember God's first commandment to man was to be fruitful, multiply and replenish the Earth, "Thou shalt have sex!" Genesis 1:28. God intended and uses His marvelous Creation of sex as a tool to keep man and woman as a marriage together in beautiful harmony, having children, lovely families, and happy loving homes, thus filling the Earth and completely frustrating Satan's plan to destroy mankind.

But by persuading man that nudity is wrong, and that they could do wrong things with sex, and therefore sex was evil, the Devil was attacking the very root of the Creation of God, because without nudity you've got no sex, and without sex you've got no children.

If God's first commandment to man and his spouse was to have sex, "Be fruitful and multiply," It was one of the Devil's first commandments to man to not to have sex, to get them into disobey God, and thereby frustrate God's loving plan for man! The Devil was striking at the very basis of procreation, recreation, of having children and to perpetuate the race of man which he was trying to destroy. He tried to destroy it by first of all undermining their faith in God in getting them to disobey, and then by getting them to believe that there was something wrong and evil about their beautiful bodies that God has given them, and that it was therefore wrong to be nude, and have sex and children.

So contrary to what many churches teach and what most of the world believes, the Devil hates and fights clean sex and his right boundaries of God's own Creation, His idea, His gift to us, and the Devil is his archenemy; of course he tries to take the credit for it, and then trickily turns around and condemns you for enjoying it, telling you that it is a sin, that it's his sinful offering for your pleasure, and that "the only way you can really enjoy it is by being a sinner, because sex is sinful", so the Devil says.

The Devil hates clean sex, and yet he's got the whole world deceived into thinking that he loves it, and that in order to enjoy it they've got to love him. The Devil has stolen the credit for the whole works, and now he's rationing it out to his people as his favorites for worshipping him. The whole world is absolutely perverted in one hell of a wrong attitude toward the rightful sex, that it's something horrible, dirty, filthy, evil, and sinful and wicked. They have virtually blasphemed against the Creation of God, the most marvelous, miraculous and beautiful of all physical activities that creates life, new human beings.

Sex between husband and wife brings the most wonderful thrilling fruit of almost any human activity, beautiful children that God gives us for His glory, but the Devil stole clean sex from God, and now it has become his own tool when he literally hates it, but he uses it for his own glory, and his own purposes to try to destroy mankind, when it was intended to be man's greatest physical pleasure and enjoyment, the Devil tries to drag the holy creation of God down into the gutter, to make it an evil, filthy, nasty, and dirty thing, so that he can get the credit of it instead of God.

It's the Devil's own doing to take God's beautiful creation and contaminate it, and pervert it, and debase it. All so called hard core pornography is designed to downgrade and belittle sex, and literally make it filthy, he downgrades and contaminates and does everything he possibly can against right sex, because it's just about the most beautiful, the most marvelous creation of God.

So the Devil is the worst greatest enemy of sex, and for the churches he has taught that sex is a sin, or at least that it's ugly, dirty, bad and nasty, it's one hell of a God damned doctrine of devils, that's what most of them teach, and they hold it over their peoples heads as a club and a bondage, and a means of lording their religion over them. Even when "sex is sin", is not the actual downright teaching of some churches, it's their attitude, nevertheless, and that's the impression their children get, it's pitiful, tragic, the sexual ignorance in which so many kids are raised today (It was around year 1980). If the churches don't come right out and say that sex is sinful, their attitude conveys it. It's all that cover up, that constant cover up that makes it appear to be so evil. What a terrible thing to teach this to their children; practically from the time they are born that they are taught to hate sex, and fear sex, and abhor sex, and deplore sex, and be ashamed of sex, and be ashamed of their sexual parts, “No, no, no, naughty! That’s dirty! Hide it! don’t ever do that! It’s horrible!” No wonder so many people have such perverted ideas. They don’t teach that if you overplay and exhaust yourself or exercise too violently, it is a sin. You are not taught that overeating is a sin, they don’t slap your hands and say “Shame on you!, that’s naughty! That’s dirty! You must not do that! That’s bad! That’s sinful!” But overeating is just as sinful as excessive masturbation, or excessive sex of any kind.

OUR VIEW REGARDING MASTURBATION

(Excerpts taken from Hector Dario Medina’s book “Does God have Sex?”)

Question: What does the Lord say in the Scriptures about the ejaculation of semen in the man without his wife?

Answer 1: Leviticus 15: 16, 17

And if any man's seed of copulation go out from him (WHETHER VOLUNTARILY OR INVOLUNTARILY), then he shall wash all his flesh in water, and be unclean until the even. And every garment, and every skin, whereon is the seed of copulation, shall be washed with water, and be unclean until the even.

Answer 2: Deuteronomy 23: 10, 11

If there be among you any man, that is not clean by reason of uncleanness that chanceth him by night (like INVOLUNTARY EJACULATION), then shall he go abroad out of the camp, he shall not come within the camp: But it shall be, when evening cometh on, he shall wash [himself] with water: and when the sun is down, he shall come into the camp [again].

In these portions of the Scriptures the Lord very clearly takes the ejaculation of semen -both voluntary and involuntary- as something very natural and normal, for which the man or boy should not be ashamed of at all, (although they should follow the basic hygiene rules when it occurs) nor therefore should they consider the sexual fantasies that helped produce the spilling of the semen -while sleeping- to be bad.

Question: Does that mean that there is nothing wrong with masturbation for men as well as for women?

Answer 1: Leviticus 15: 16, 17

And if any man's seed of copulation go out from him (SEMEN), then he shall wash all his flesh in water, and be unclean until the even. And every garment, and every skin, whereon is the seed of copulation, shall be washed with water, and be unclean until the even. (AND THEN KEEP MOVING!)

Answer 2: Song of Salomon 5: 4- 6

My beloved put in his hand by the hole [of the door], and my bowels were moved for him. I rose up to open to my beloved; and my hands dropped [with] myrrh, and my fingers [with] sweet smelling myrrh, upon the handles of the lock. I opened to my beloved; but my beloved had withdrawn himself, [and] was gone: my soul failed when he spake: I sought him, but I could not find him; I called him, but he gave me no answer.

These Scriptures show that there is no problem at all with private and personal masturbation. We simply advise you to take a good look at your sexual fantasies with which you accompany your masturbation, because these, if not watched over, due to our human and sinful condition over time could make you disobey other general rules regarding sex established by the Lord in His Word.

Romans14:5b

Let every man be fully persuaded in his own mind.

Psalms 19:14

Let the words of my mouth, and the meditation of my heart, be acceptable in thy sight, O LORD, my strength, and my redeemer.

(End of excerpts)

According to the Master and Johnson's report on human sexuality, some of the most scientific research done on the subject so far, people who release their tensions even through normal masturbation, are actually more adjusted and peaceful and content, and less apt to become neurotic, or go haywire, than those cases where there was such a strong religious training against sex, that they developed tremendous guilt complexes which affected their mental condition. Unless people are sexually happy, and sexually satisfied, they are not going to be fully satisfied and fully happy. The excess of anything is the sin.

(Note from Andres Nueva Vida: Certainly, and due to our passionate sexual nature we could clearly compare sex as fire, fire that if channeled positively, can create warmth, help you to nourish yourself, to work, and to make things easier for you and your loved ones, but if channeled improperly, it can cause havoc, destruction and lots of pain for us and our neighbors. So it is with sex, a heavenly gift that can turn out to be either divine, or hellish, depending on whether it's handled wisely or wrongly. How many of us have suffered or even made suffer loved ones due to some wrong decisions motivated by our selfish sexual appetites that we weren't able to administer properly, lovingly and with soberness and consideration? This is why it is so important to rein and handle our sexual impulses from their very source, and that is our own thoughts. Psalm 19:14- Let the words of my mouth, and the meditation of my heart, be acceptable in thy sight, O LORD, my strength, and my redeemer.)

So Sex is a very important part of life, even if you are saved and have Jesus, and all of your other needs are taken care of, you must be happy sexually or you're not going to be fully happy. It's a perfectly normal appetite, like eating or drinking, or any other appetite, a bodily need which must be satisfied like any other physical need in its due time.

As we've already explained, God himself made sex and our sexual organs, and created the very nerves and senses which give us such pleasure, and He intended for us to enjoy sex in His place and season just as much as any of our other physical activities.

Your body is a beautiful creation of God, and every part of it is perfectly normal, natural, good, and God-made for perfectly good purposes and uses, if used at the proper times, with the proper person, your wife or husband, and in a way which is not offensive.

Your sexual parts are just as good as the rest of your body, and sexual activities, feelings, pleasures, are no more evil than eating, drinking, exercising, or enjoying any other physical functions.

There is nothing wrong with our bodies, and nothing evil about sex with your spouse, and nothing catastrophic about masturbation. All are perfectly normal, necessary, natural, and God-given physical functions, providing our bodies are not abused or misused, or overused, or exposed or used in such a way as to offend or hurt others, the uninitiated, unlighted, or sexually inexperienced.

The deluded forces of the Church System condemn and supprime God-given physical pleasure of man as the supreme sin! They have turned everything about backwards from the way it ought to be, condemning a supreme physical pleasure as the worst of his sins. What a travesty and blasphemy against God's holy Creation! God created life and pleasure, and happiness for us to enjoy with the proper person, at the proper times. I don't have a sad God, I have a happy God who wants me to be happy too, and you as well, this the whole point of Jesus coming into the world! He said, "I am come that you might have life, and that you might have it more abundantly!" (John 10:10) He came to relieve us of the suffering, pain, death and tears brought into he world by the Enemy and the sins of man!

Do you think for a minute that in God's original Creation that Adam and Eve, the two most perfectly, beautiful, strongest and sexiest human bodies ever made sat around whooping and complaining under Heaven and Earth of the Garden of Eden wishing they were not created, sorry that they were alive, loving to be dead? This, of course, is ridiculous! They loved the life that God had given them to enjoy! They just made a mistake of wanting too much life for wanting to go to the extreme, not being satisfied with what they already had, but wanting more, more than God knew it was good for them.

God made us to enjoy life, and to be happy. Pleasure in its time and place is God-created for our good. So praise the lord, and enjoy yourself, amen? Why deny yourselves the joys and necessities of life that God created for you to enjoy in its time, thereby bringing yourself and others unnecessary misery, unhappiness and dissatisfaction?

Even the apostle Paul said, "It is better to marry than to burn!" (1 Corinthians 7:9) It's just as wrong for you to starve your body from its normal sexual needs and sexual satisfactions, as it is for you to starve yourself to death by not eating, or to waste away through lack of exercise, or to die from exhaustion, or lack of sleep.

However, on the other hand, don't go the opposite extreme, of becoming so addicted continually having sex but never getting anything else done! Or lying away all night enjoying too much pleasure, and not getting enough sleep! It's all a matter of moderation. Don't go to either extreme, of overuse or underuse.

Regarding excesses there seems to be one sexual sin which is absolutely prohibited without exception, and which was judged very severely by God, It even gets its name from that ancient licentious city, which God totally wiped out, and horribly destroyed for its common indulgence and their sin, the city of Sodom (Genesis 19). Sodomy, or homosexuality between men. It's an abomination to God, and utterly and unequivocally forbidden. Although the laws of man in many places are beginning to tolerate it and even encouraging it, "men with men doing that which is unseemly" (Romans 10:27) It's apparently a complete abhorrence to the Lord. To say the least it's unsanitary, infectious, insane, disgusting, degrading, dirty, perverted, and hazardous to the health of both, body and mind. And it is so totally unnecessary, making it a complete perversion of the normal God-created. heterosexual appetite of the natural desire between men and women.

I'm not condemning the poor boys that have some kind of Satanic perversion or demonic impulse that drives them into that kind of a relationship, it's really sad, and I feel sorry for them. But know that if they will sincerely pray and ask the Lord to free them and deliver them from that spirit, He will! He has proven in many cases that He can completely cleanse and deliver them from that sort of thing, making them new creatures in Christ Jesus! (2 Corinthians 5;17)

Another fairly common sexual problem today is that many people seem to get bored with normal sex, so they desire and seek after something different, "something new". Well, it's true that variety is the spice of life, and changes in love-making positions and techniques are fine, as some alternative means of massaging and satisfying your partner with either hands, and fingers, mouth, tongue, etc. But it becomes a problem when people get bored and want something perverted, something violent or dangerous, etc. Sadism and masochism, and all that sort of thing is an absolutely devilish, fiendish, demonic perversion.

Artistic nudity, clean, romantic sex in marriage is very beautiful, the way God meant for it to be. But any kind of violent, or hurtful sex is sickening. A good criterion is "If it's unloving, is ungodly." For God is love. 1 John 4:8. If it's not loving, gentle, affectionate, good, kind, clean sex between you and your spouse, then it is certainly not of the Lord.

Remember the Devil hates clean sex, and he just loves to besmirch God's wonderful creation by making people like pigs, and hogs in the slime, when God meant for it to be beautiful. It's the Devil that makes it ugly, and dirty and just plain coarse and crude and almost sickening, especially when there is too much of it, and it's too much, and it's just too rough for your taste. Like in most of those porno movies where the sexual organs are the principal characters, they're just disgusting, and sickening. The mechanics of sex are to be enjoyed and felt, and the final dramatic orgasm, but the closer view of sexual organs as such a time are not particularly inspiring. You're supposed to be feeling it, and in the Spirit, not lustfully greedily, gorily watching in. Again the problem is the intemperance, the immoderation. Some people have been so immoderate, and had so much sex that lose interest in it entirely, and become asexual, not wanting any sex, and this asexuality is a growing problem today.

Well, I'm convinced that the reason they get fed up with sex, is because they don't have any love in it, and one of the most wonderful and beautiful things to me about going to bed with the one you love in marriage, is not just the sex, but the love, the talking, the companionship, the petting, the affection, just really, really loving each other. That's the best part of it all! The love! The physical thrills of sex are great, and an orgasm is a wonderful release, but the greatest of it is love! (1 Corinthians 13:13) Thank God for loving and cuddling, and real genuine natural affection!

Sex is NOT the greatest thing in life! Serving the Lord is the greatest thing in life! Serving others is the greatest thing in life! Jesus said to love Him with all your heart & mind & strength & to love your neighbour as yourself, that those are the greatest things in life! (Mt.22:37-39; 19:19) The Law of Love didn't even necessarily include sex. He never said anything about having to love sex!

Are you enjoying the pleasures that God has created to be enjoyed in his time? If not, maybe it's because you don't have his love in your heart, to give you real love for your spouse! You'll never get to fully enjoy sex with your spouse without real love! You'll never know what really sexual enjoyment is until you love your spouse! For then sex takes on a new meaning, a whole new beautiful experience.

If you've never known the love of God, you've never known the most beautiful sexual experiences you can ever have in your marriage! God created sex to be the most beautiful physical experience on Earth, but before you can really and fully enjoy it, we must experience Him and his love! Otherwise sex just won't satisfy, and you'll feel something missing, because you are not complete! But if you know Jesus, and are filled with His love, you are complete in Him! The Bible says so in Colossians 2:10.

He can satisfy your soul just like sex satisfies your body, and you can't even fully satisfy your sex needs with your wife or husband, until you satisfy your soul first, because the ultimate in sex is a spiritual orgasm with God, the baptism of his Spirit! So to really enjoy sex you've got to belong to God! And that's the only way that you can possibly regain the freedom and the liberty that Adam and Eve had in the Garden before they fell. The total freedom from guilty, or any guilt complexes about sex. You first got to find God, and the truth of God, to know the Lord and be led of his Spirit, and to know the truth of his Word, the only way you can get back to the original freedom of the Garden, the sinlessness of the Garden, the perfection of the Garden with your Adam or your Eve, is to get back to perfect fellowship and relationship with God and belief in his Word, faith in him, and his Creation. To know that He made it all, and that He wants you to enjoy every sexual pleasure that is clean and right, and good, and not harmful! Praise the Lord!

So enjoy yourself and sex at the right time, in the right place with the right person, your lovely spouse that God has given you to enjoy, without fear or condemnation," for perfect love casteth out all fear, for fear hath torment." 1 John 4:18, particularly sexual fears which can be physical torture. Let yourself go into the bosom of God, and let God do it to you in an orgasm of the Spirit till you are free! Amen? Now, try it! You'll like it, and thank God for it! Amen?
